

Skills developed in this grid include:

- fine motor skills
- communication
- problem-solving

- design
- managing emotions
- confidence
- self-esteem

Design a superhero shield with a repeating pattern.

Design and make a superhero shield from household materials.

Use digital technology to take pictures of me and people at home in superhero poses.

Use digital technology to add captions to the photographs with a superhero name.

Use a search engine to find an image of my favourite superhero.

Talk about some of the rules I follow at school and home.

Describe the responsibilities I have at home and school.

Write down the rules and responsibilities I think a superhero should have.

Create a superhero character to tackle bullying at my school.

Social Studies

Science, Technology,
Engineering and Maths

Superheroes

Home Learning
Ideas for Pupils in Primary 3

Literacy & English

Health & Wellbeing

Expressive
Arts

Design a new superhero.

Design a superhero cape.

Create a piece of art that features a flying superhero.

Role-play as an everyday hero, like a nurse, firefighter or police officer.

Write some questions I would like to ask a superhero.

Write a fact file about my favourite superhero.

Write an imaginative story about being a superhero for a day.

Create a poster, advertising the job of a superhero.

Make a thank you card for an everyday hero.

Discuss the powers a superhero would need to resolve conflict.

Create a poster about the qualities and talents a superhero would need.

Create a collage of the skills and abilities that make me a hero.

Write about someone I know who is a hero.

Outline what I would do in an emergency situation.