

Find out how animals make adaptions to survive in their environment.

Explore food chains and food webs. Create one with a glossary explaining what interdependence, interaction and energy flow mean.

Find out about the importance of bees in society. Design a wildlife garden for a school playground.

Find out about extinct animals and make a fact file.

Research current news stories for endangered animals.

Complete this Endangered Animals Fact File Research Worksheet.

Write a piece of persuasive writing about conserving the Amazon rainforest explaining why it is so important.

Write a letter to a logger persuading them to stop by using my word bank.

Write a balanced argument about the importance of zoos. Self-assess my writing using this checklist.

Write an acrostic poem entitled Endangered Animals.

Research Endangered Species by Andy Warhol and share my thoughts about his work. Create my own piece based on his work.

Create a piece of artwork inspired by endangered animals.

Create and act out an advert for an organisation responsible for protecting animals.

Choose a character (logger, hunter, conservationist) and write a play based on them.

Do some Endangered Animals Colouring.

Literacy & English

Expressive Arts

Engineering & Maths

Endangered Animals

Home learning ideas for pupils in Primary 7

Science

Social Studies

Science, Technology

Research organisations that help endangered animals and make a poster about one of my choice.

Choose a different organisation and create a leaflet about the work they do.

Find out how deforestation can impact the extinction and rate of decline on animals. Use headings and subheadings to record information from my research.

Find out why different animals are hunted by humans and explain the different types of hunting.

Read Canada's Arctic: Climate Change and How It Affects the Polar Bear and write a newspaper report.

Make and play Endangered Animals Top Card Game.

Use the Internet to gather information about an endangered animal of my choice and share my findings creatively.

Research current endangered animals and the reasons for their decline. Create a PowerPoint using some research.

Research the impact that sustainable energy has on endangered animals. Write a report.

Create a poster about how the way we live affects Earth's resources.

Skills developed in this grid include:

- Creativity
- Co-operation
- Turn-taking
- Research
- Organisation
- Empathy
- Self motivation