Literacy Task

Green Yellow

I hope you managed to watch the 'For the Birds' video and do the planning work sheet yesterday.

- You have already chosen a title for your story.
- You have also thought of names for the characters and some adjectives to describe them.

Today's task is to write the story in your own words using this planner

Remember our core targets-

- I can use capital letters and full stops
- I can write in sentences
- I have finger spaces between words

- Use this planner and fill in the spaces to help you write your story-
- You can add a picture to your story if you want and then upload it to Teams to share it with your teacher.
