

Taking Care of a Dog

Having a dog is really fun because they love to play and go for long walks. You can teach them tricks and get them to fetch balls.

What does a dog look like?

What does a dog need?

What is a baby dog called?

Baby dogs are called puppies. Dogs give birth to lots of puppies in what is called a litter. When they are born, they are looked after by their mummy, who gives them milk to drink.

How do I keep my dog healthy?

Dogs need to run and play to stay healthy. They also need to go for walks every day and eat the right foods.

Remember!

Owning and caring for a dog is a big responsibility.

Questions

1. Which body part does a dog not have?

feather

fur

paws

2. What do dogs eat when they are born?

milk

biscuits

food

3. What do you call a group of puppies when they are born?

a pack

a herd

a litter

4. How often should dogs go for walks?

every two days

every day

every week

5. Find and copy one word that means 'get'.
