

The discovery of the ancient pyramid by Heidi

A small team went on an adventure, not an ordinary one, a deadly one. It was a sunny day when they entered the pyramid. It was a dark, spooky pyramid. There were rats squeaking and ashes from the torch were burning on the old sand. It had an echo everyone was worried. There were two sun gods. Legend says they made the seasons, earth, heaven and the underworld. So, we slowly crept into the other room.

They were in the main tomb, it was pitch black and no one could see anything, but they had a torch. They saw a golden mummy and they were frightened so they explored a bit more.

“We need to keep moving,” whimpered Kerr.

“Look at the people that have explored here before us,” said Isla terrified.

They went to one of the corners. It was a scroll, and it said, “There is a hidden gem somewhere.” There is a sheet that we could not read but it was something like this óŒ § æπÁi ΩÂ æ àβus πΣ ÆŒ ÿβπ. There was a lever, but it was really rusty and stuck, so we called someone over and we got it. The door with chains fell and we went through.

There was a bit of light shining through on to a brilliant, blue gem.

“Let's go touch it,” said Isla

“Are you insane” exclaimed Stuart

Isla didn't listen, she touched it anyway the floor went on fire and visemes snakes came and acted us Isla, Kerr and Stuart. Five started two remain we had to leave them, and we haven't seen them in 60 years.

You have included:

- Paragraphs
- Connectives to join sentences
- An exciting opening to hook the reader
- Interesting and descriptive vocabulary to describe setting
- Interesting and descriptive vocabulary to create atmosphere
- A plot structure (beginning, build up, problem, resolution and ending)
- Some dialogue with accurate punctuation
- Sentences that start in different ways

Next time:

- Try to include similes to level up your descriptions

This is the best piece of writing you've written Heidi! Keep up this standard.