

Illustrated by Angie Birring and Ali Michael

Nessie and the NECKLACE

written by Joshua McCurry
& Herr McDonald

and the Seahorse

One day in Scotland there was a great, muckle monster
called Nessie.

Page 2

Suddenly in the horizon a wee purple
seahorse jiggling around in the sparkling sea.

Nessie and the seahorse were Keen to be good friends.

Swimming together in the blue water the two friends noticed a massive crab!!

85
8.00.5

The crab was quate
sleeping beside some big shinning pearl.

The crab slowly rised
and seahorse and nessie
swam away.

The pearl was so cool Nessie and the seahorse just had to nick it but the scary crab woke up!

Then the crab
started chessin them,
shouting "give me back
my pearl!"

The crab eventually caught up wae them and tried to take back the pearl, but the seahorse and Neash wudnea let go.

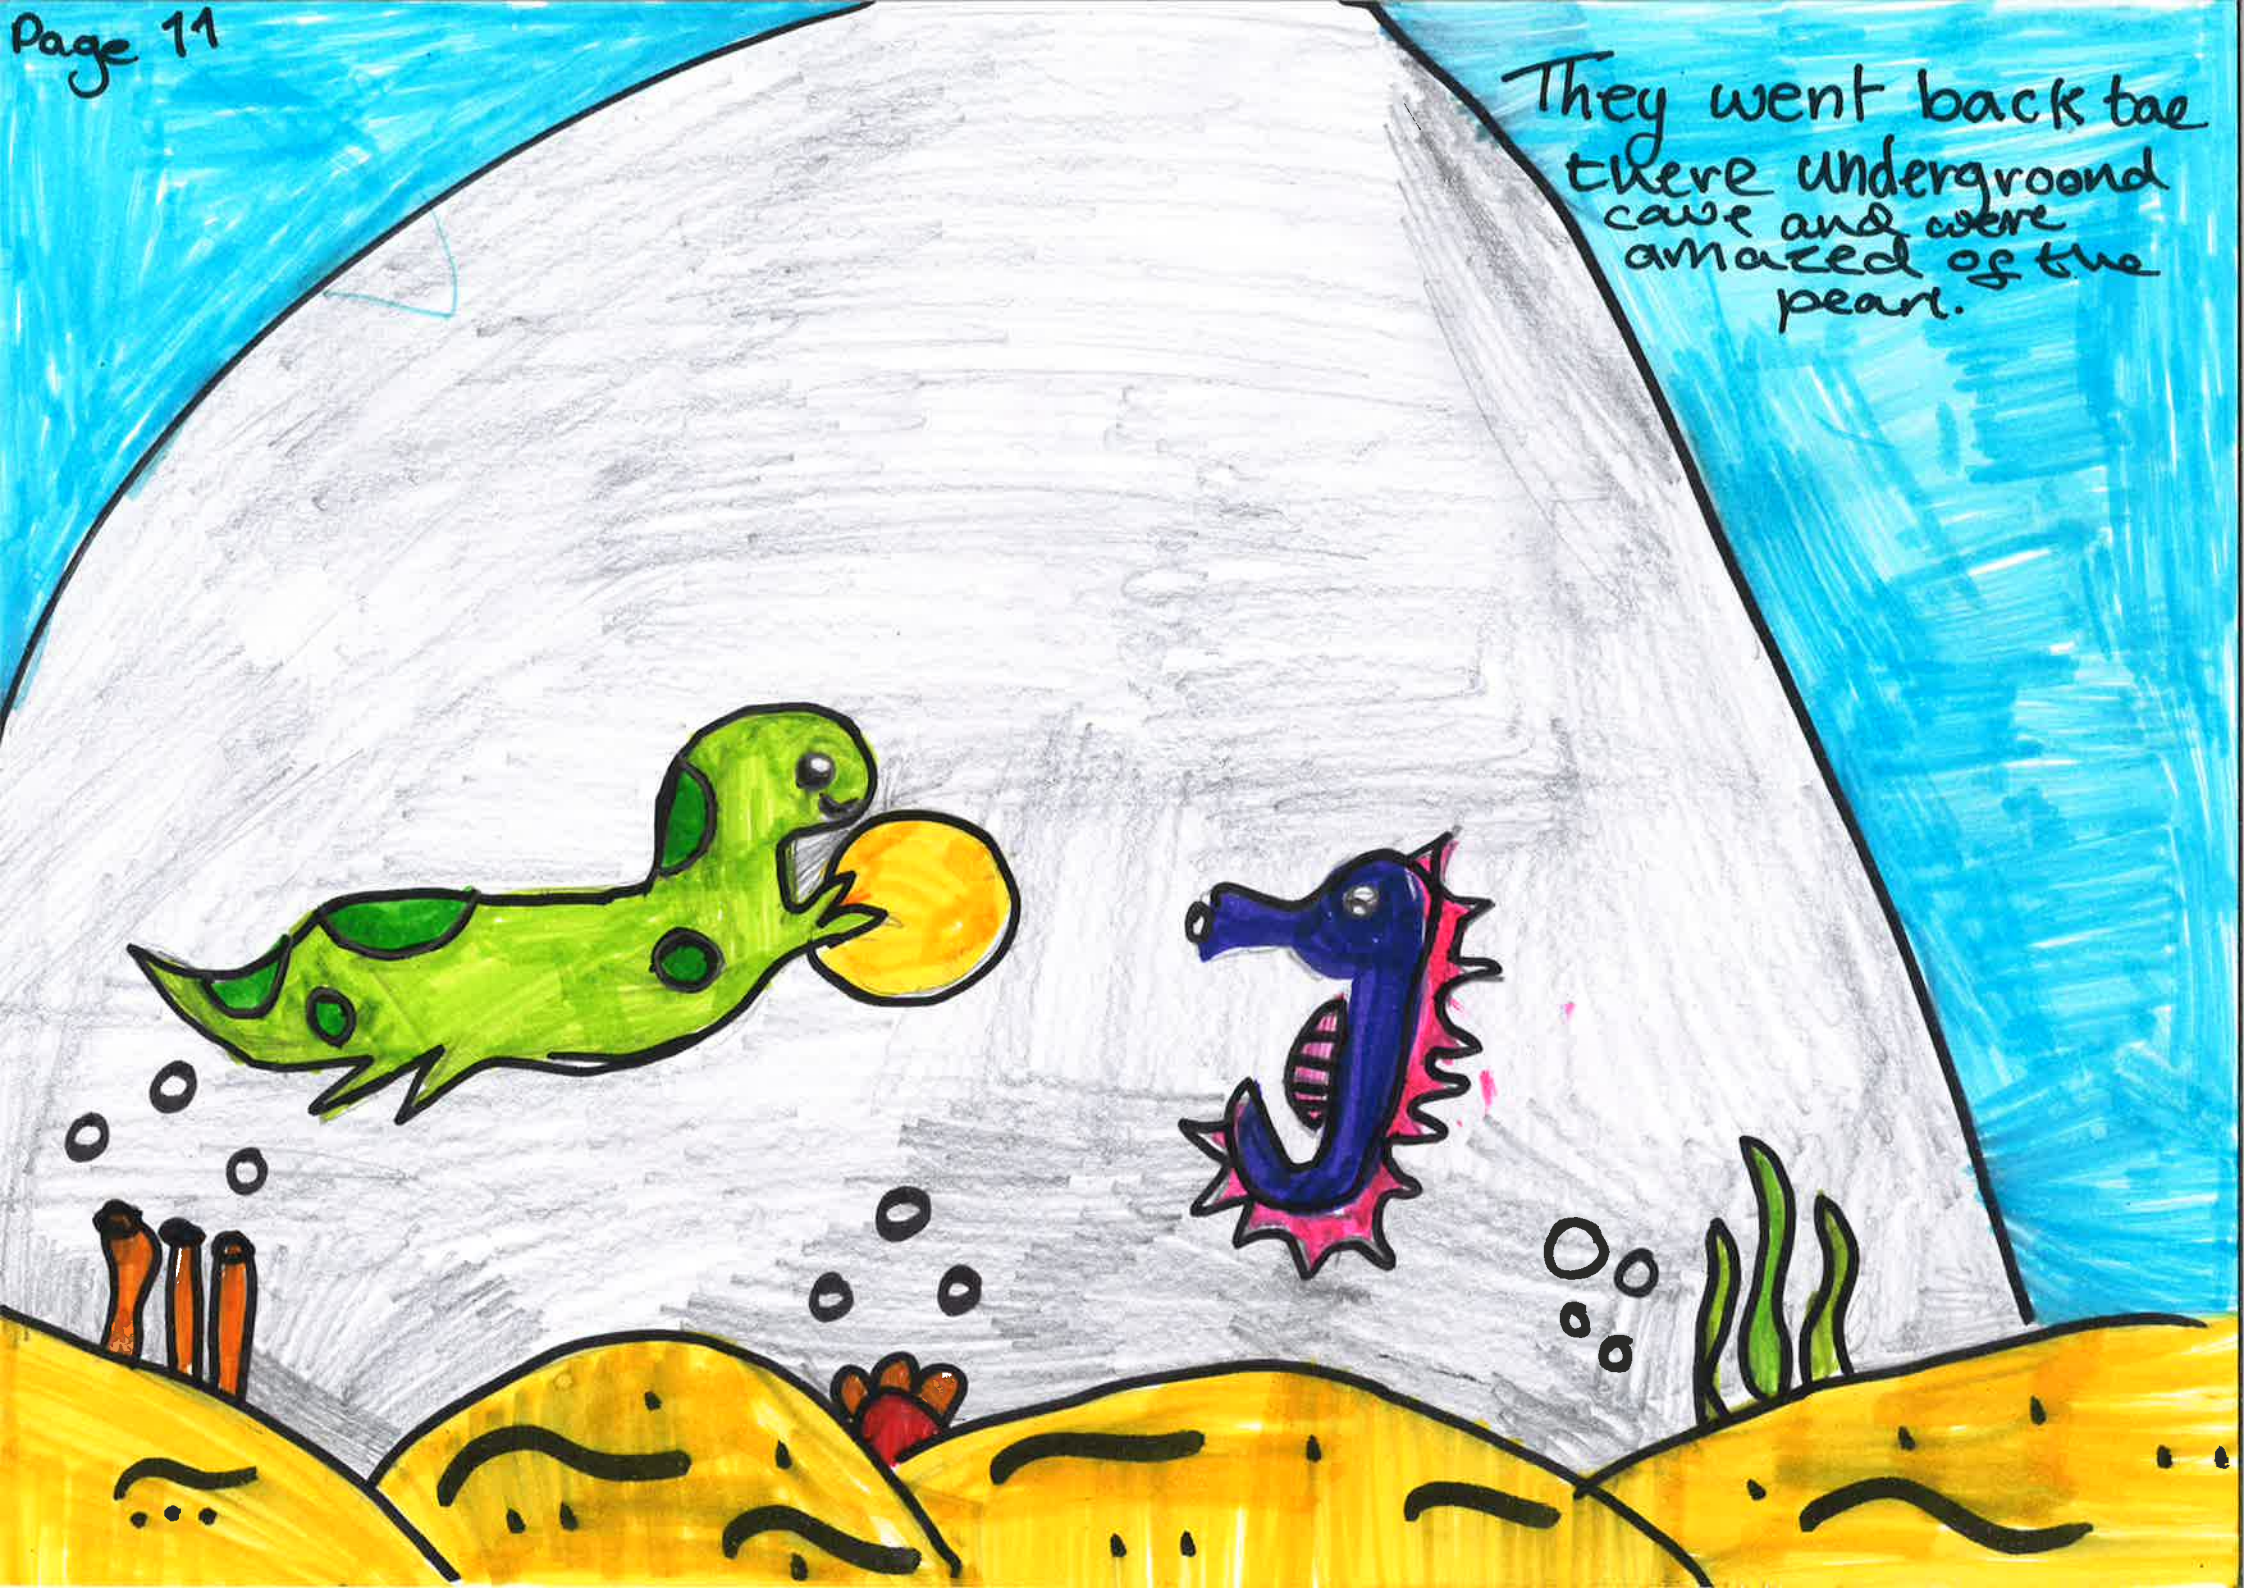

GET BACK HERE!!

Eventually the crab ran out of breath any nessie
and the seahorse got away.

They went back to their underground
cave and were amazed of the pearl.

Nessie and the
seahorse decide to show the pearl egg
to their pals.

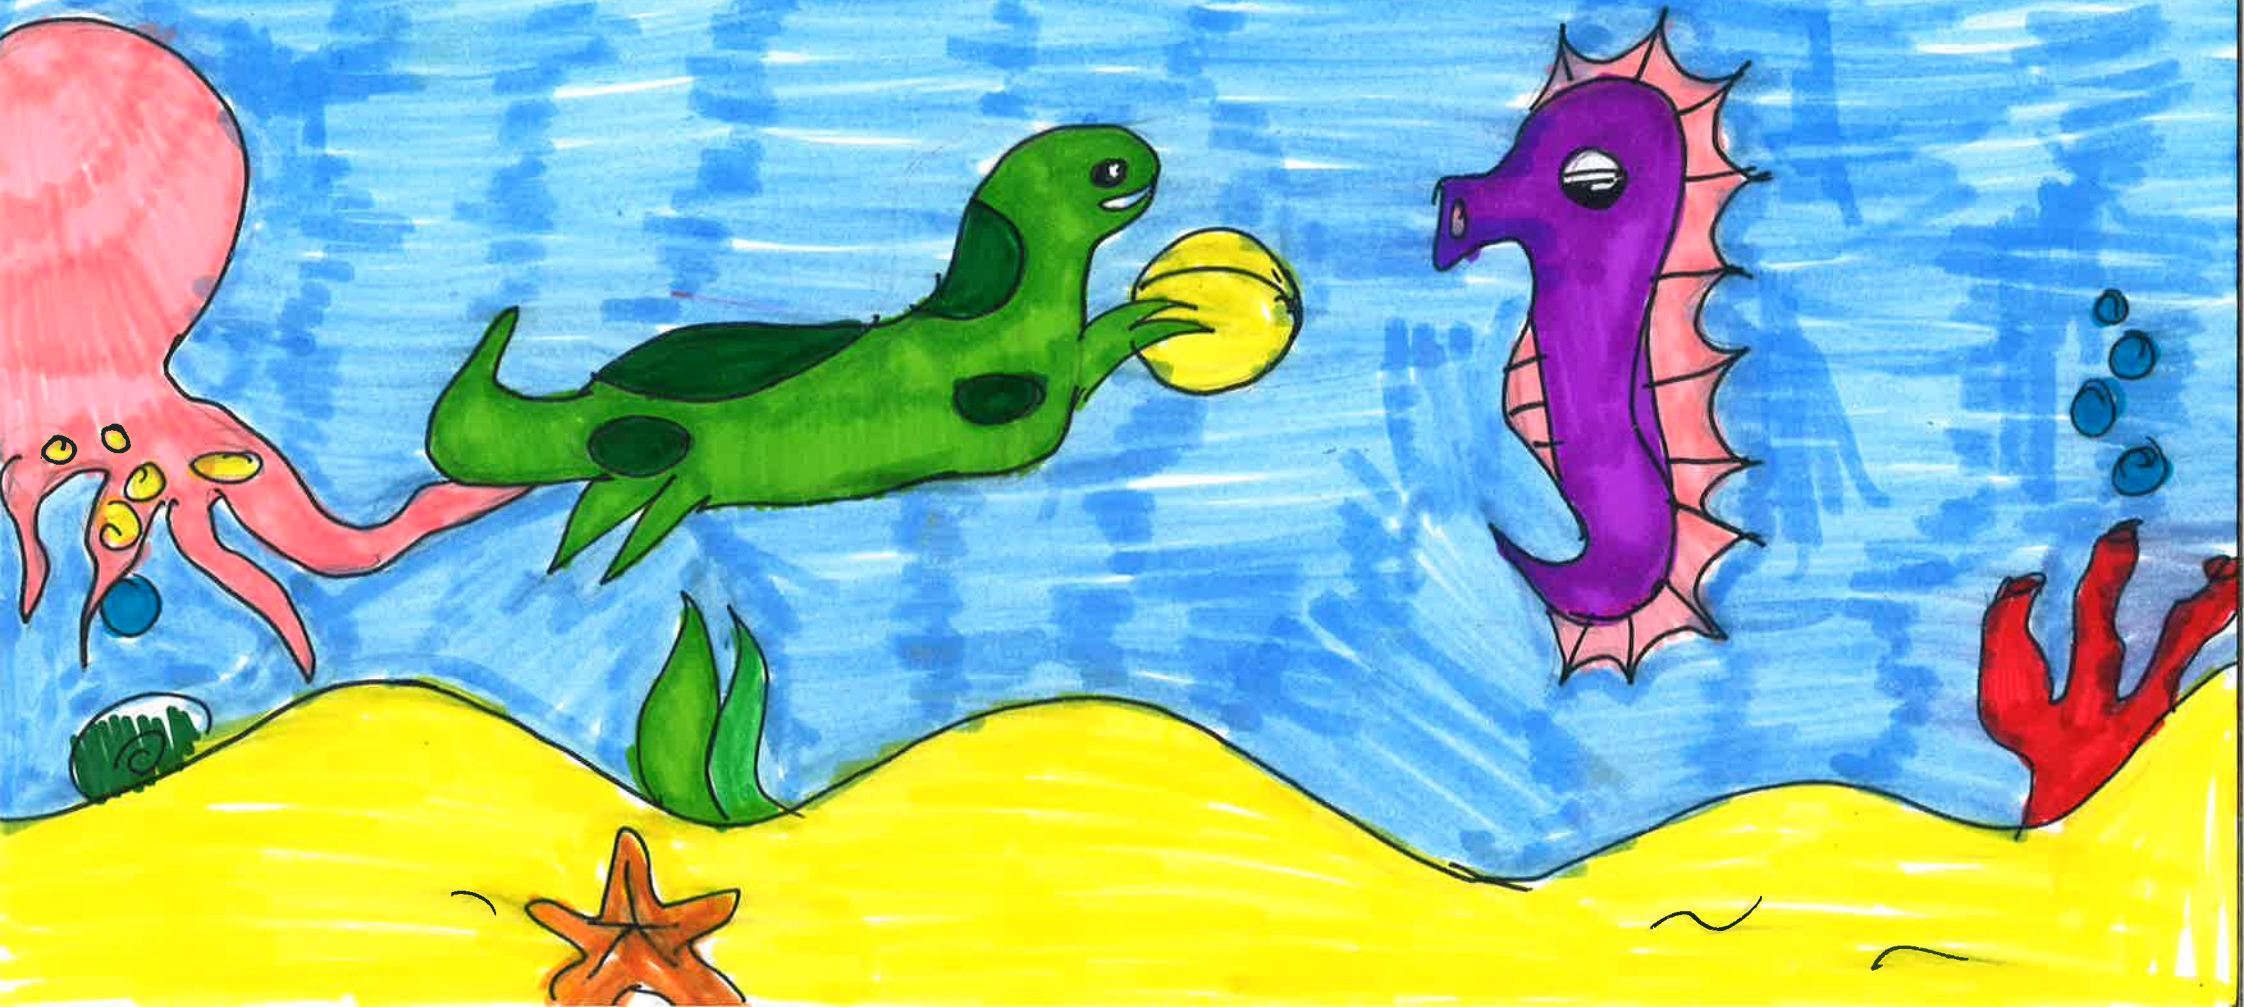

Whilst sheking there greens the pearl they saw the crabs greeting.

Oh my.. look...

Then the seahorse felt bad for the crabs.

Because Nessie and the Seahorse remembered that stealing was horrible

So the seahorse and Nessie go over to the crabs house to apologise.

gelpg17

Then the seahorse Nessie and the crabs became friends and lived a happy life.

So Nessie and the Seahorse that the moral of the story is to never steal and always be kind to others.

