

Gilbert the Apple

APPLE

Once upon a Wet drookit day in the toon Crookedyine. Gilbert the goblin was stomping through the woods, from his cold damp cave
with his tootlé wee red bag.

It was early in the morning and no one was about, it was time
for Aubert to attack!

First was the fruit and veg stall
he grabbed 3 apples, 5 potatoes
and a handful of strawberries.

The owner of the clothes
shop woke up the next morning and realised that she was missing a woolly jumper!

CARROT CAKE

The owners of the bakery realised he was missing several cakes and loaves!

WANTED

G

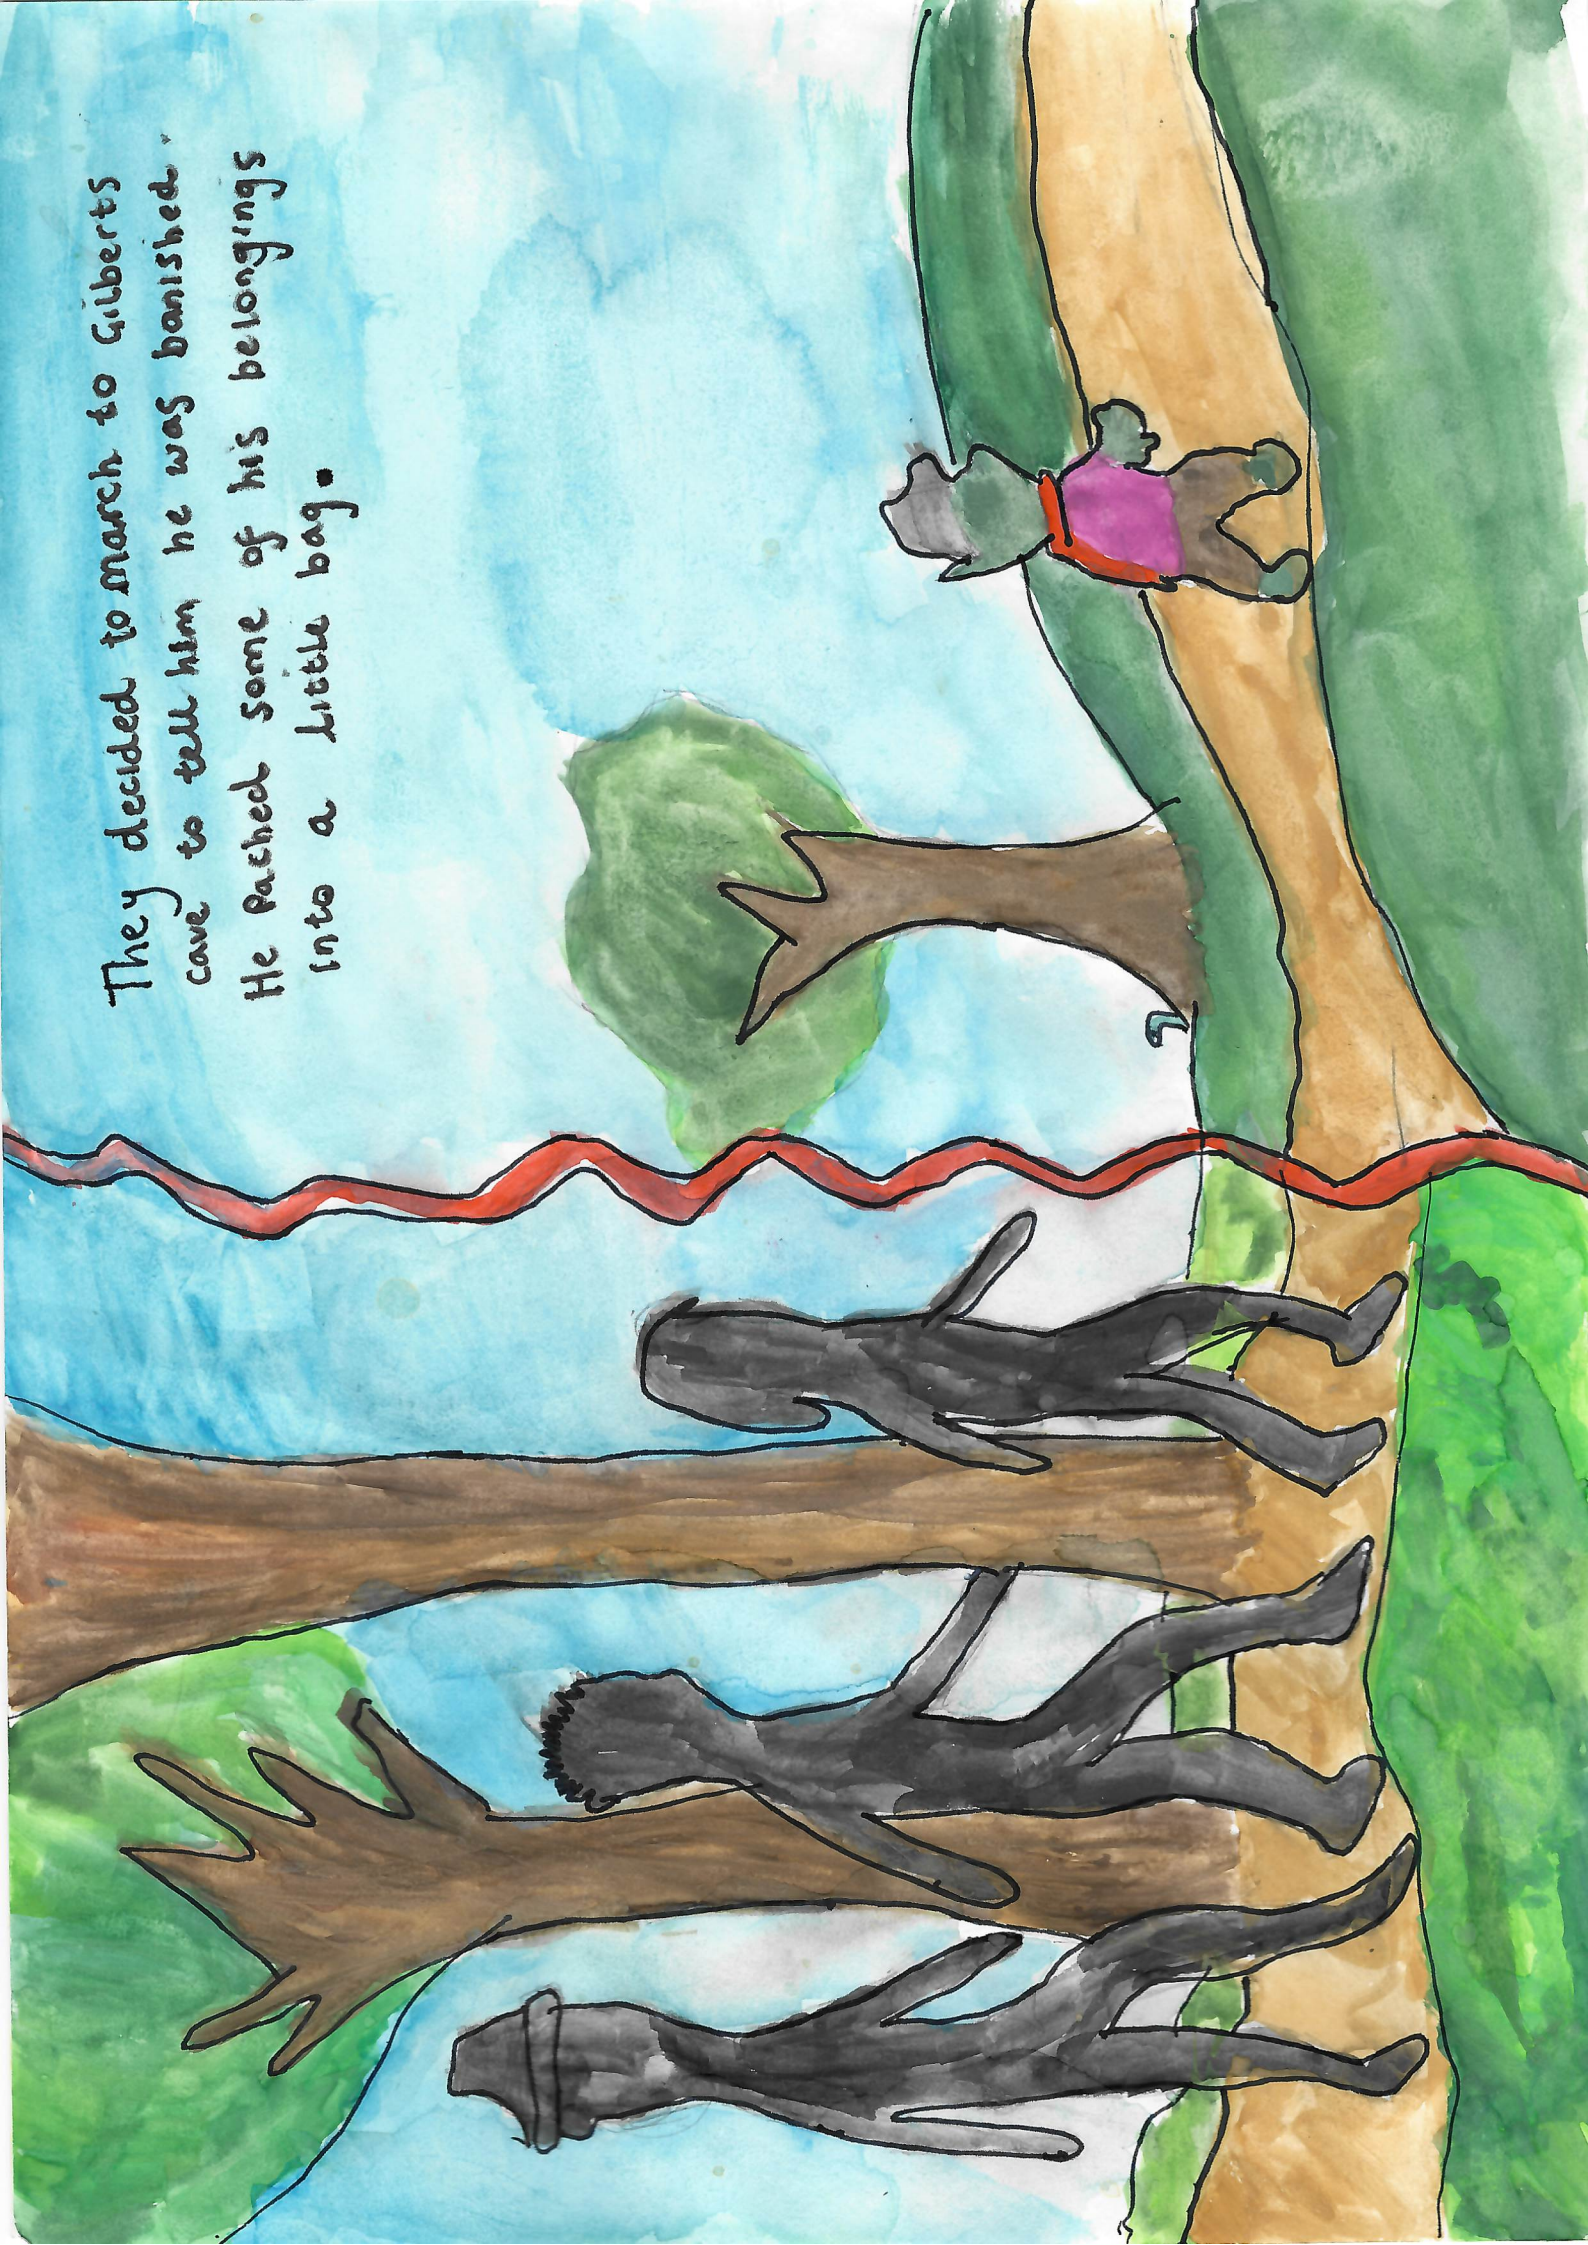

10,000
Gold Pieces

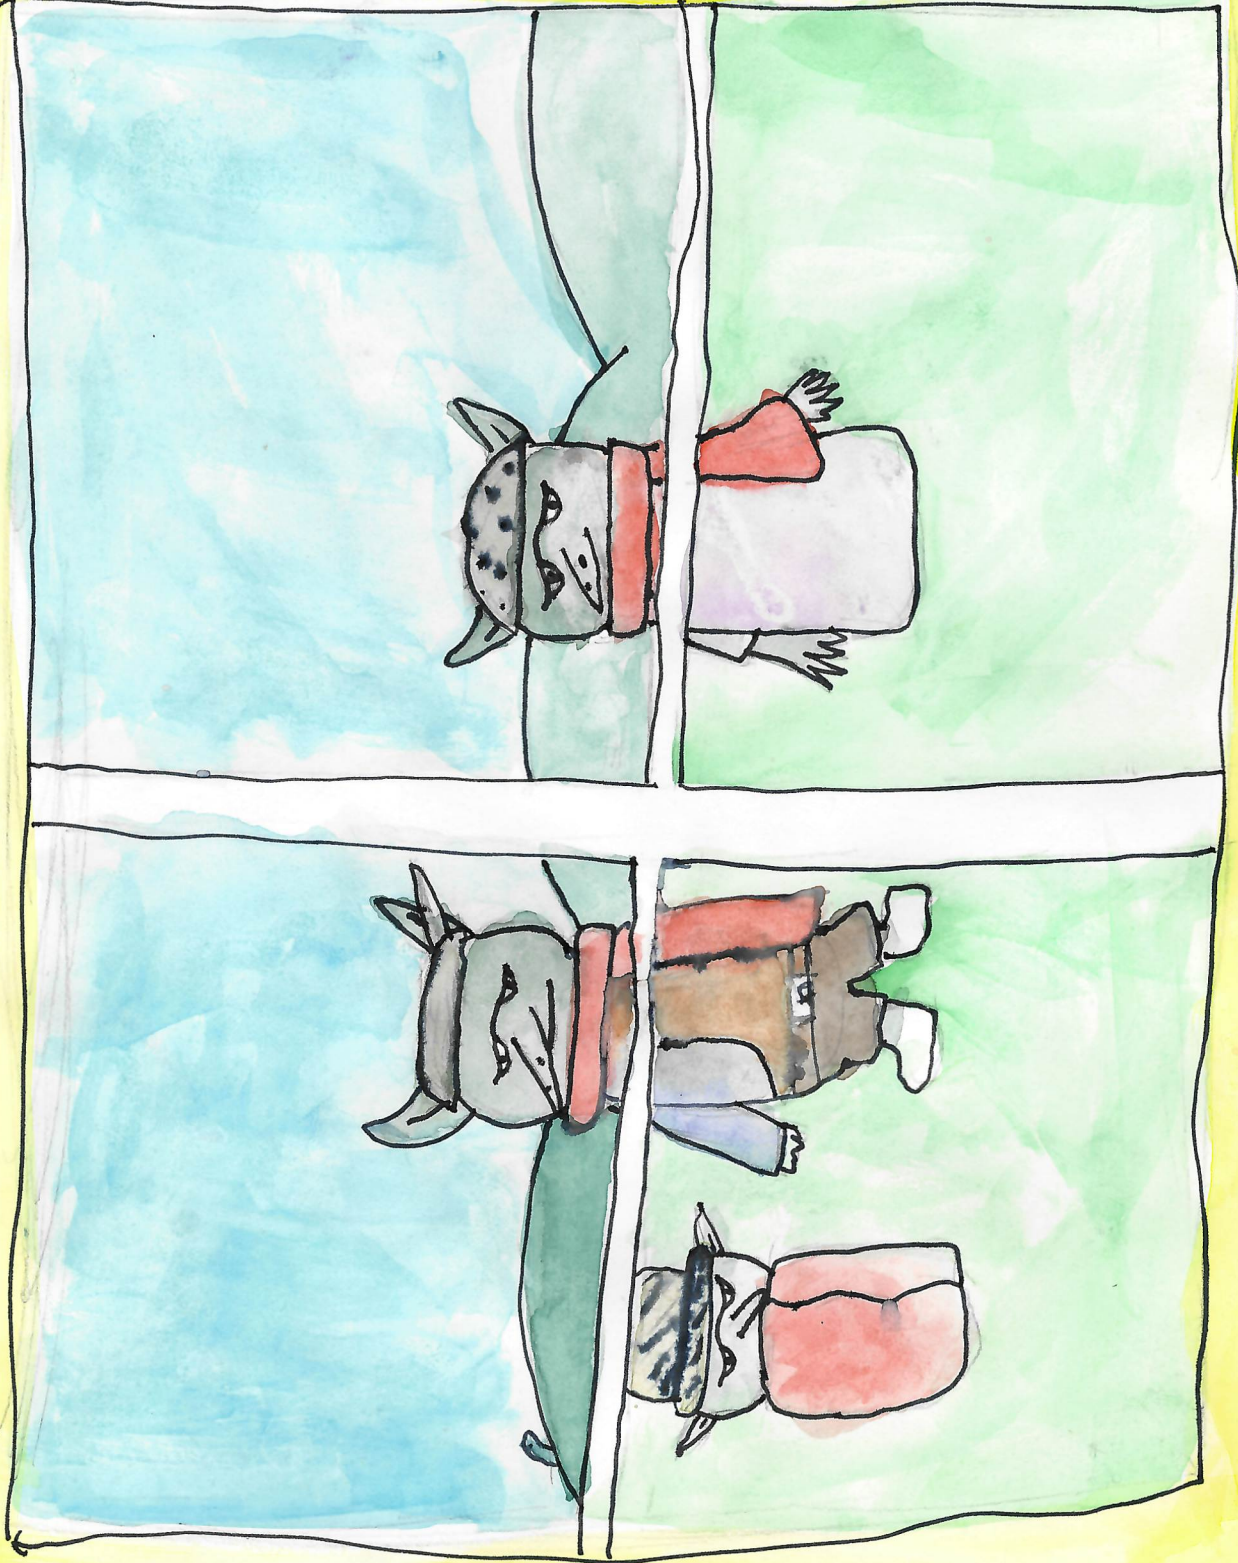

Soon all the shop owners realised that they were being robbed, they all went to the Sherrif and arranged a town meeting.

They decided to march to Gilberts
cave to tell him he was banished.
He packed some of his belongings
into a little bag.

The villagers are back at their shop when they
spot three small figures
tramping into
the village
square.
His Gilbert's
children here!
for there dad!

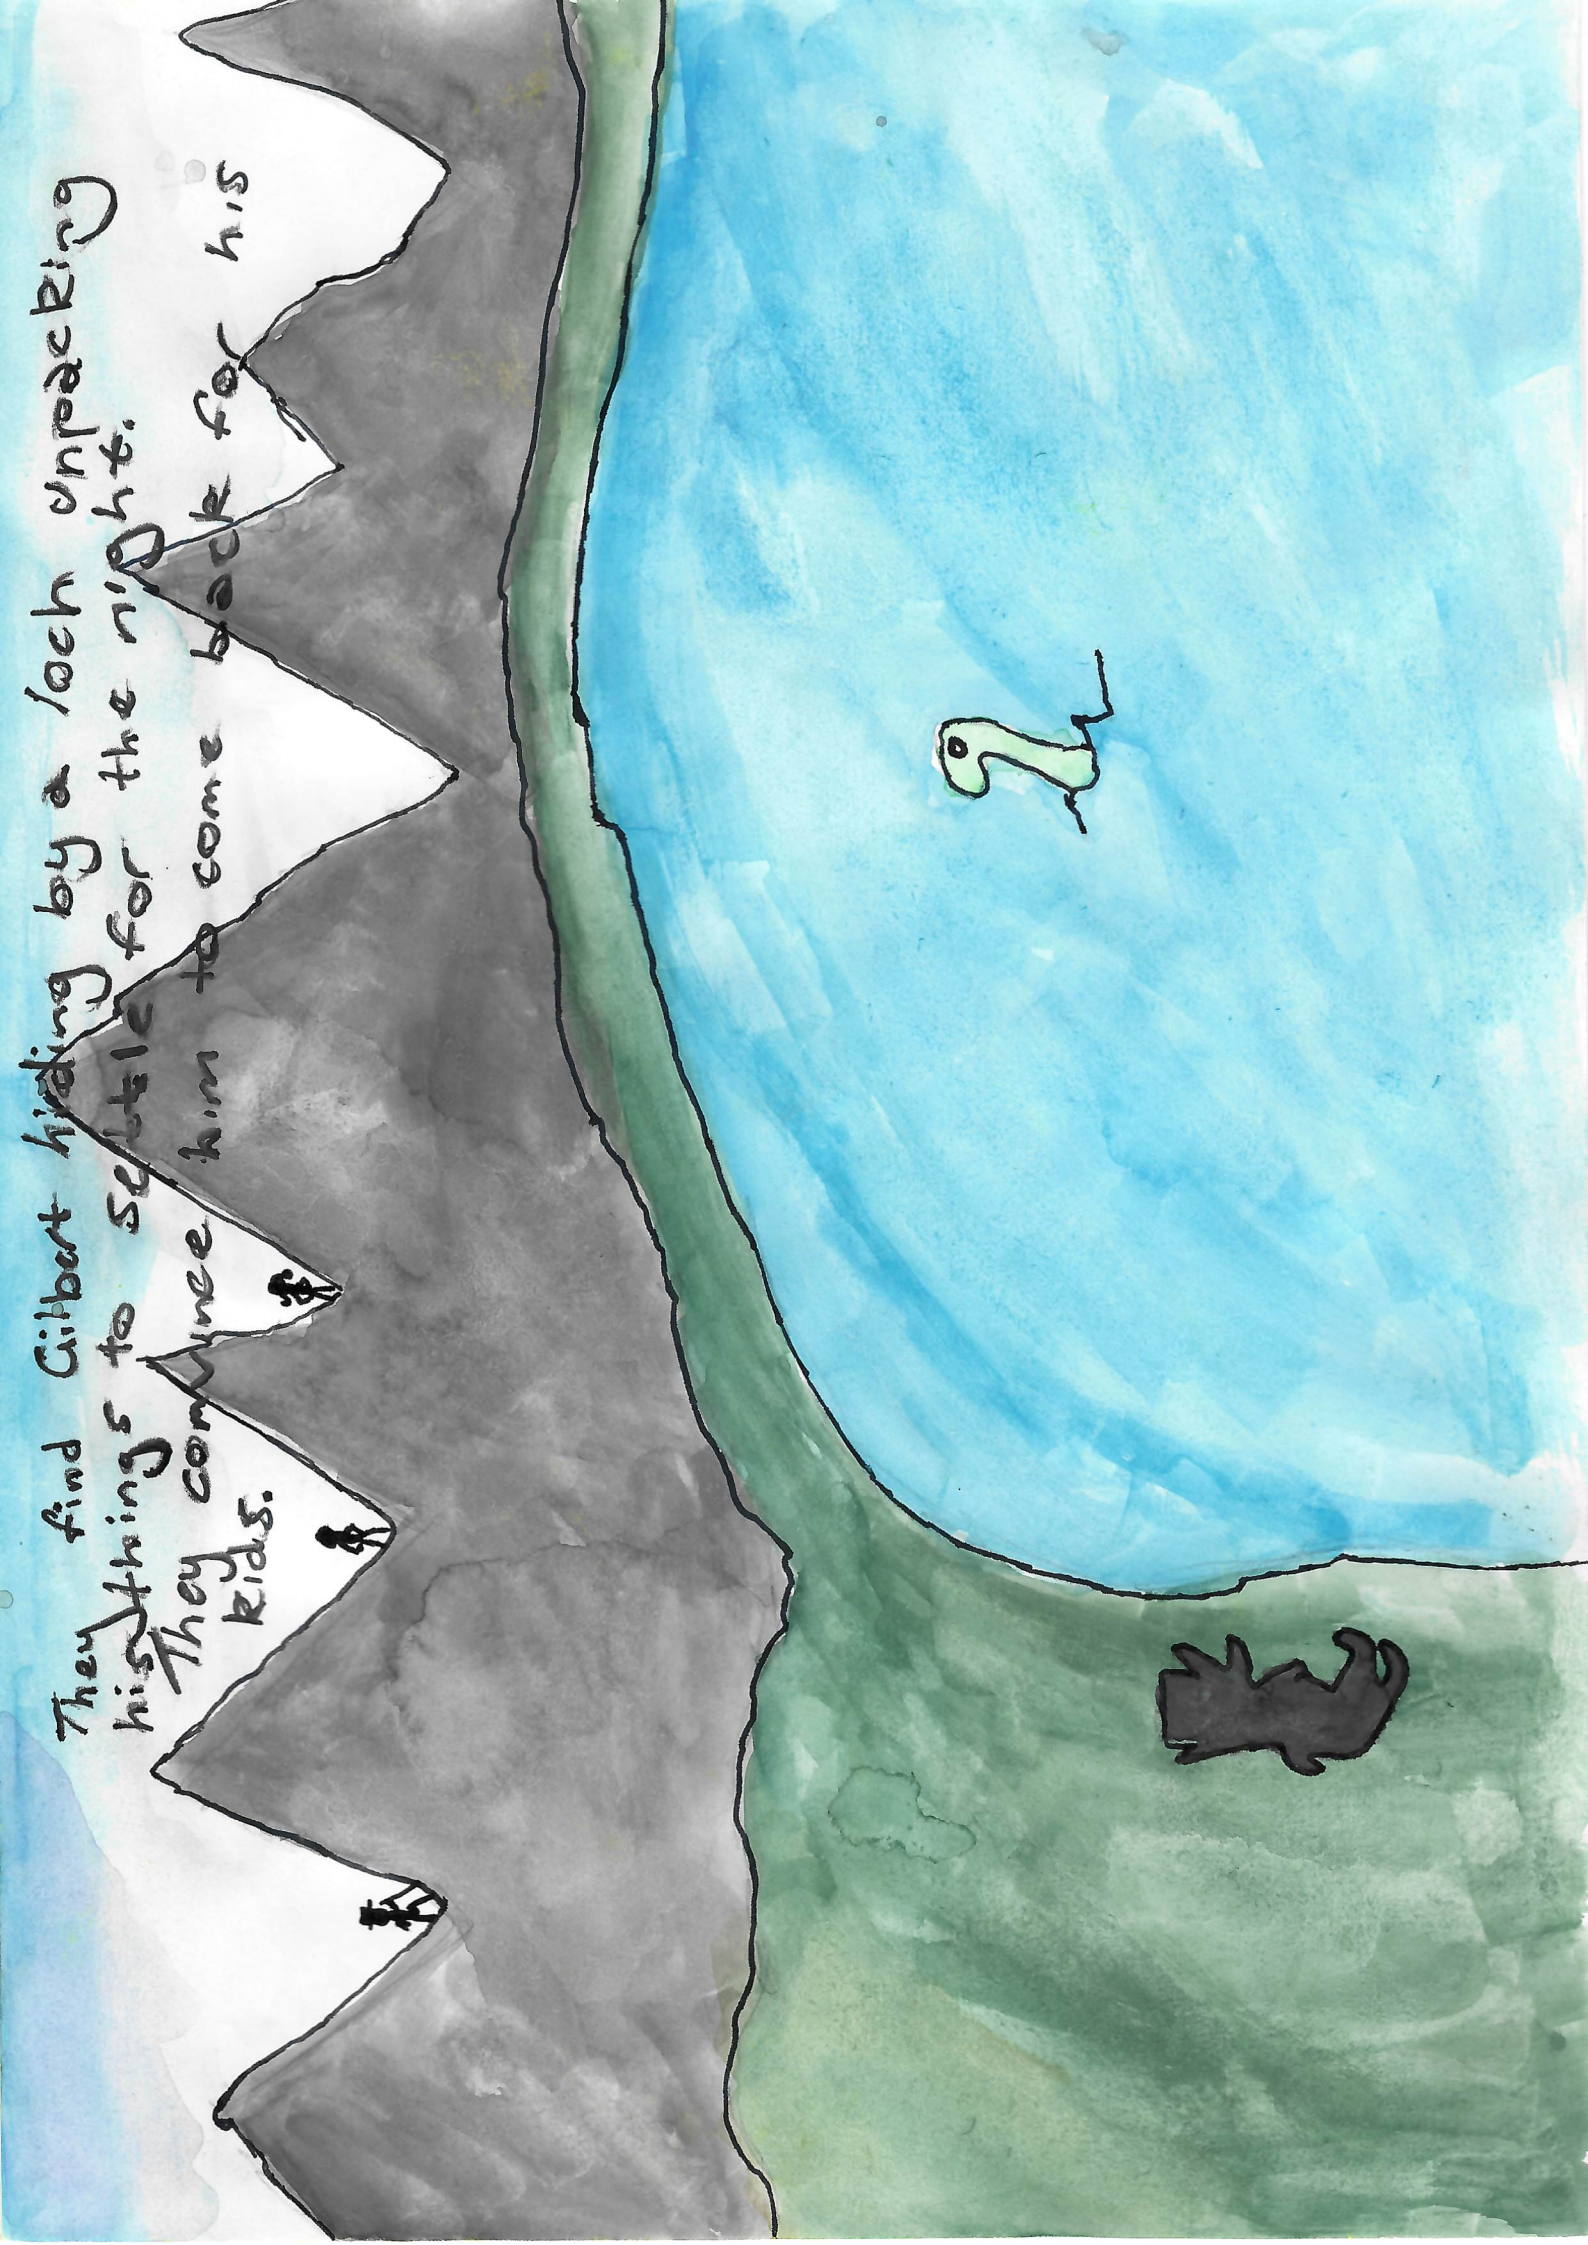

The children explain why Gilbert was stealing and taking what's not his.

The sheriff sets out a search for Gilbert to come back.

They find Gilbert hiding by a loch unpacking his things to settle for the night.

They convince him to come back for his kids.

The villagers & Gilbert agree that he will work for the shops he stole from and get a package of food in return

Some thin' is afoot in the town o' Crookedville.
Things are going missing from every shop around
Could Gilbert the Goblin be the blame?

