

TAFAM

THE TATTIE

There once was a bonnie sweet tattler, who went by the name of Tom.

He lived with his family in the field, happy as can be!

Wan day however,
the farmer came,
Scooping up wee Tam and his maw and dad.
He took away maw
and took away
dad, but dropped poor wee Tam in the grassy old field.

Cold and alone he searched and searched but maw and paw werenae about. As night came, he noticed a haggis smokin' his Pipe, hummin' a tune to his wee old self.

"I think I saw your wee auld pa, over the field and in the trees!" So Tam the talkie and his new mate Humish, walked and walked to the big oak tree

"How's it goin' bonnie wee tattie?" the wise old Haggis asked. "Gid, old Haggis, but I need some help, my family's gone and I cannae find em. I'll help you wee tattie to find yer family, now let's go quick whe the day's still young."

"How's it going Bonnie wee tattie and wise old haggis?" the swaggy sprout asked.

"Gid, sprout, but I need some help! Ma family's gone and I cannae find em."

"I'll help ya wec tattie, to find your fam, now lets go quick, fast like a ram!"

"I think I saw yer wee bonnie may wi' wee bolsterous Scotty, Walked and walked to the old broken shack.

Tho maw wisnae there,
they found a timid tunchie, who the found to be called Tavish.

"How's it going, Bonnie wee dachie? the dotic turnip asked."

"Gid wee turnside, but I need some help, my dummies gone and I cannae find em!"

"I'll help you wee tattie, to find your parents, but lets go quick I feel kinda sick!
 I think I saw your maw and yer paw back in the field, looking for you!"

So Famm, tavish, hamish and scotty, walked and walked back to the mochkit wee field.

And there were maw and da, and with a hop at his wee tattie legs, the family were
