Marvellous Monday

Starting on Monday 24th January, the ladies are going to become trolley dollies every Monday afternoon. Available on the trolley will be our Sgoil-Àraich library and some very lovely busy jobs to do with your little person at home.

Feel free to dive into both. There will be hand sanitiser available for you to use in these COVID times.

SGOIL-ÀRAICH NA COILLE NU Aidh

Have you any...

Old shoe boxes that you could donate to the Sgoil-Àraich?

I have an idea...that we could put activities in the decorated boxes for the children to choose to play with. Hopefully this will make the activities easier to store and allow the children to identify the activity they love to play with, giving us clues to what other resources that can be taken out for them x

Homelink activities

We hope you are enjoying working with your home link bears at home. Once you have finished your wee activity please return the bag to the Sgoil-Àraich ladies and we can get you another brain busting busy job.

Please remember that you lovely people are your child's greatest educator, you have taught them so very much before they come into the Sgoil-Àraich. You are our superheroes and we are here to help you xx

Fàilte gu Sgoil-Àraich na Coille Nuaidh

A huge big welcome to all our lovely new little people. There is Brody, Harris, Matilda added to our lovely Gaelic family this year so far.

Another 2 in February and another 2 in March will bring us up to a huge 15 caraidean in the Sgoil-Àraich.

We are going to take over the world...

SGOIL-ÀRAICH NA COILLE NU Aidh

Co-là breith sònraichte.

No birthday celebrations this month so maybe we can celebrate –

24th January - National Belly laugh day

27th January - National chocolate cake day

Below is a link for some super handwashing tips to help us do what we can to keep the COVID virus at bay.

Learning Journals

You lovely parents are so integral to your children's learning, teaching them so much before they even set foot in the Sgoil-Àraich.

Please share this learning with us through the learning journals, together with your mini adventures, club achievements or pictures of things your little person loves with all their heart. They love to share these with their friends at Seall agus Innes/Show and Tell. If you would like to share a video, please email: marie.farren@eastayrshire.org.uk

Absence from the Sgoil-Àraich

If you know that your wee bundle of love is not going to attend the Sgoil-Àraich on a certain day please speak to one of the Sgoil-Àraich ladies to allow them to complete an absence slip. This will be passed to the office and will result in you not receiving a text regarding the absence.

Communication ideas - to help your chat with your wee person.

- Talk about everyday things with your child - putting the dishes away, making the bed. The more language they are exposed to the better.
- Be open to talk about feelings, even the tricky ones like anger and frustration.
