Ms Dougan

It has been a busy time in the Sgoil-araich. I really enjoyed learning the Scottish Dances with the wee ones in the past few weeks in preparation for our Gaelic '25 years celebration', and we have also enjoyed a visit from our Head of Education Linda McAulay-Griffiths. The children are always so welcoming to visitors and a credit to you all.

Looking forward to the Christmas Season which is almost upon us.

And what a night we had!! It was simply splendid to see all the parents, grannys, papas and friends of our Sgoil and Sgoil-Àraich.

Tapadh leibh uile x

A huge thank you to all you lovely people who have donated lots of lovely craft supplies and loose parts to the Sgoil-Àraich. We have put them all to good use!

To all you darlings that have donated toys, Christmas supplies and all manner of loveliness to us, we cannot tell you how much we appreciate your donations. You know who you are xx

CORNER

Play piece.

Rhyming teaches children how language works. It helps them notice and work with the sounds within words.

The best game that you can do with your precious bundle is to sing nursery rhymes with them.

Nursery rhymes provide bite-sized learning opportunities for young children to develop key developmental skills and can often be the trigger for hours of creative and open-ended play. They are a powerful learning source in early literacy and enable children to become interested in the rhythm and patterns of language.

Some wonderful nursery rhymes sources –

Sgoil-Àraich outfits.

The sgoil-Àraich have wetsuits for all the children and wellies are available too. If you can either send your wee person in with soft shoes on or a wee pair in their bag. Comfy feet = happy feet x
