Ms Dougan

I have been really impressed with how busy the children have been so far in the final term of the 22/23 session. On my visits the boys and girls always make me feel so welcome and this term they have been teaching me the Gaelic words for different items of clothes. I really need to practice these more as they were quite tricky.

The children have also been helping the big boys and girls in Primary 6 in James Hamilton Primary by sharing their secret lavender play-dough recipe with them.

I was also lucky enough to try the dandelion honey the children made- it was delicious.

Reader of the fortnight
A huge thank you to the readers we have had so far in the Sgoil-àraich. You have been a huge hit with the children and with the staff too, to be fair 😊😊
We still have a few dates available..

Our Sgoil and sgoil-àraich values have been updated with the help of the staff, children and parents working collaboratively.
