Bookbug songs and rhymes

Have fun with the songs and rhymes of Bookbug during the summer.

Allowing the children to listen to Gaelic regularly makes a huge difference to their retention of the Gaelic language.

Mrs Abercrombie

Well we have almost made it to the end of the session...

We've had super fun on our trip to Culzean and all the excitement of Sports Day races, not to mention the delicious lavender ice cream!!

Congratulations to all of our new Clas 1 boys and girls who are leaving us this week and we hope everyone has a fabulous Summer break!

The final thank you of the year 2022/2023.

Wheredo we start...

Thank you all so much for your support for this whole year. We rely so heavily on your participation and feedback to direct and improve our setting's service. Your children are the reason we get up every morning. It has been an absolute delight to have you all with us through this year.

THANK

No birthday's this month, however we want to give a shout out to the people celebrating their big day whilst we are on holidays.

Ben, Brody and Rosanna. May you all have the bestest days x

CORNER

Always encourage your child to talk with you about what they're feeling and thinking. It helps them to associate how their feelings to what they are called. When children know what feelings are called, they are not as scary.
