

As part of this unit you have to research other designers work. This involves finding examples of work that are relevant to your design work. You will also need to analyse the work of designers making comments about the design issues. There are 3 ways of doing this;

1. Use pinterest and set up a board under your own name (instructions below)
2. Collect images from the internet and paste them to a word/powerpoint document and then e-mail theses to my school e-mail (JenkinsF1@st-lukes.e-renfrew.sch.uk) below is a suggestion of some designers to look for

Suggested Designers - Contemporary Arthur Hash Louise Perrone Nora Fok Peter Chang Marjorie Schick Ana Hagopian Saloukee (Sarah Kelly) Shaun leane Other.....	Suggested Designers - Historic Art Nouveau (Design style) Archibald Knox Rene Lalique Frederic Boucheron Art Deco (Design style) Raymond Templier Jean Foquet Other.....

3. Or same as above but print off the document and hand in to me.

Using Pinterest

The easiest and most efficient way to find good examples of designers work is through the website www.pinterest.com. Here is what you need to do;

1. Go online and use google to find the website Pinterest.
2. Register by entering a valid e-mail address (not your school e-mail) and give your name etc.
3. You will need to respond to the automatic e-mail from pinterest and that will allow you to start pinning etc.
4. On Pinterest search for “mrjenkinsart” you will need to click on pinners to find this and it will come up with a profile called “St Lukes Art & Design Mr Jenkins” with pictures of headpieces etc.
5. Click on Follow top right of the screen.
6. Create a board and call it head pieces and start pinning examples of interesting/ inspiring Jewellery/ body adornment. It is quick and easy but spend some time looking around and try to get at least 10 good images that relate to your theme.

PS. It is a good idea to go into settings and turn off the e-mail notifications otherwise you will receive a lot of automatic e-mails from pinterest.
