Discussion points	Notes	Action
Logo and motto competition results	Miss Bruce explained the results of the voting process. The winning motto was created by Amy Frew and Grace Priest. The winning logo was designed by Freya Blackley. The girls were invited to the meeting and congratulated. Freya agreed to change the direction of the logo to make it look like a shirt and tie.	Contact a professional company to have the logo and motto made into clip art to be used on school documents and the website. Pupil council representatives to share the results of the completion with their class. (paper copy was provided) The folder containing all designs and logos will be passed round classes for everyone to see.
Playground Safety	The playground plan was used to discuss where pupils felt safe in the playground. Pupils suggested areas of the playground that required the most supervision and identified these areas using post it notes.	The playground poster with post it notes will be shared with the PSAs this week so that they can help the children to feel safe.
AOCB: Tuck choices Ibrahim M. and Joshua S. asked to share information from the meeting in December that they had with Mrs Ferguson and the Catering Manager. As we ran out of time, this will be added to the agenda for the next meeting.
