UNICEF'S Children's Rights Launch Pad	https://launchpad.unicef.org.uk/ Use above link to enter the launch pad. If you are a child in Scotland, the Launchpad is the place to explore your rights and how to enjoy them. When you play the game, you'll also find out about children's lives in other countries.	Ask class teacher if class can enter the Launch Pad during a few ICT lessons and find new information about other children in the world. Level 1: 5-7 year olds Level 2: 7+
Safer internet day	Safer Internet Day is on Tuesday 7th February. We are keen to support this across the school, and hope that you will choose to include a few of the activities in your planning over the week of the 30 th January and the week of the 6 th February- teachers have activities and resources to be used with class  Article 5: You have the right to be given guidance by your parents and family.  Article 17 You have the right to collect information from the media.	Ensure Article 17 is mentioned when taking part in activities and lessons.
Global Citizenship	Inform group of course I am currently attending and Global Goals, more information to follow.
