Discussion points	Notes	Action
World Book Day	World Book Day is in March. We will use this day to promote Reading for Pleasure in the school with a different lunchtime club every day.	Lunchtime clubs will be: Monday: Comic Club Tuesday: Non-fiction Club Wednesday: Poetry Club Thursday: Picture book Club Friday: Book recommendations Club They will take place in the outdoor classroom – it will have the walls up! Librarians have made posters to advertise the event.
	The school will celebrate by having a dress up day – either in a book related costume or in PJs. Children are being invited to bring in blankets and torches for the “Reading in the Dark” event in the classes.	Librarians are making posters to advertise the event. They will be tweeted and displayed throughout the school.
Blue Peter Book Awards	Librarians are making their way through the nominated books.	Librarians will continue to read and review the books ... In addition to reviewing the books to the rest of the school, we hope to review them on the Blue Peter website.  Then we will distribute the books throughout the school and see if school readers agree with the Blue Peter Awards!
