1. Update from nursery- staffing update- F Bibby ongoing absence, Anne-Marie O'Brien CDO is covering this absence.
2. Summary of accounts
Account balance is currently £2516.10 - £25
3. Social evening - Friday 22nd March, Giffnock North
The event was a huge success and raised more funds for the nursery than last year. Well done to all committee members, parents and staff who supported the event! Special mention to Louise Veza who was the Lead in this event - thank you Louise! Total profit raised was £1609.22. This will go to nursery funds to benefit the children.
4. Family Centred Approach
The nursery and staff are going through the re-accreditation of their Gold award. There will be a digital link sent to parents to complete an online questionnaire and there needs to be a high response rate for the award to be achieved. On Friday 17th May, some parents will be invited to come to the nursery to be interviewed in relation to this (five or six only.)
5. Rights Respecting School Award
This needs to be re-accredited and as part of the application some parents will be invited to be interviewed at the nursery on the morning of 29th April in the nursery.
6. Glenwood Charter
As part of the above awards, the charter needs to be displayed and understood by parents. A display of the tree visual is to be created using the white board and 'post it' notes left around for parents to give examples of how the nursery has delivered on each of the charter pledges e.g. inclusiveness etc.

7. Scavenger Hunt

Planned for wc 23rd April. Sponsor forms are to be collected by parents, sponsor money to be paid via ParentPay. Sign up sheets to go along on the day are also in the nursery cloakroom.
