Dear Parent/Carer,

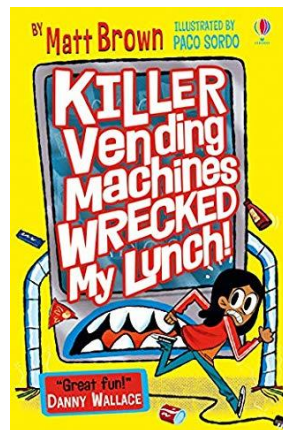

We are delighted to welcome the popular children's author, DJ and Nickelodeon presenter Matt Brown to Kirkhill on Wednesday 28th August. Matt's visit has been arranged with our friends at Waterstones Booksellers (Newton Mearns) and he is looking forward to talking about and sharing excerpts from his brand new book 'Killer Vending Machines Wrecked My Lunch!' with our Primary 4, 5 and 6 pupils. Matt's visits are hugely entertaining and he will be happy to answer questions and discuss his writing approach with our pupils.

There is no obligation to purchase Matt's book, however, if your child would like a personalised, signed copy, it will be on sale on the day. The book costs £6.99 and if you would like to make a purchase, please pop the money into an envelope with your child's name and class marked clearly on the front. Can we please ask that money only be brought to school on the day of the event (28.8.19). Signed books will be given to pupils to take home the following day.

We believe this will be a super opportunity for the pupils to meet and be inspired by Matt and his work.

Yours sincerely,

Pam King

Killer Vending Machines Wrecked My Lunch: (Third book in the Dreary Inkling School series). When Dreary Inkling Primary School's headmistress buys some new vending machines, she never imagined that a freak electrical storm would turn them into killer robots... Suddenly, the vending machines are on the rampage! Can whizz-girl Drishya Samode step in to save the day and unite the Tech-Heads and the Cool Girls at the same time?
