Dear Parent/Carer,

Kirkhill Inclusion Network

We would welcome your help with establishing Kirkhill's first Inclusion Network, which would comprise of parent and staff members. The group would meet informally to share strategies and ideas for supporting our learners, and would also work collaboratively to develop inclusion within our school community, with an initial focus on creating Parent/Carer Guides.

The aims of this group will be to:

- provide a supportive, informal forum for parents and carers to meet and support each other and share strategies and expertise
- to work collaboratively and continue to support the needs of all learners
- raise awareness of learner's needs and how adults can support these
- support the school with awareness events, such as Dyslexia Awareness Week
- take forward aspects of the School Improvement Plan related to additional support needs

Initially, we will form the group and then decide together on meetings and timings.

If you would be interested in joining this network, please contact the school office on 0141 570 7200 or via email at: schoolmail@kirkhill.e-renfrew.sch.uk

We look forward to hearing from you and thank you in anticipation for your support.

Kind Regards

Liz Edmonstone
