

lifequotesru.net

Tell me and I forget. Teach me and I remember.
Involve me and I learn.
- Benjamin
Franklin

Introduction to Adult Learning

Life is a learning process.
Each day presents an opportunity for learning.

To contact the Adult Learning team:

email:

adult.learning@eastrenfrewshire.gov.uk

Tel: 0141 577 3306

We look forward to meeting you

Adult Learning

Some of our Courses

Introduction to Computers

(This course is for complete beginners)

Literacies for Work

(Get support with reading and writing while you learn how to search and apply for work using the computer)

STEPS

(To help you feel more confident, improve your self- belief and set goals for the future)

SQA Accredited Numeracy

(Will a formal qualification help you to find a job or access further education?)

ESOL (English for Speakers of Other languages) Learn or improve your English for everyday situations, work, to support your children or go to college.

Online Skills for Work

(Build up your computer skills to search and apply for work online, e.g. use email for job alerts, attaching CVs, search and apply for jobs...)

As a parent you are your child's first and most important teacher

If you are interested in finding out about learning in the community, please come along for a cuppa and a chat on the 19th February at 9am in Kirkhill Primary School.

Gain knowledge in Science, Technology, Engineering and Maths (STEM) to support your child's learning

Build confidence to help your child with homework

Join one of our West College Scotland courses

Brush-up on your skills for work or further study