

Celebrating St Andrew's Day 30 November 2020

Wear Something Tartan

Come to school on Monday 30 November wearing an item of tartan to celebrate the feast day of Scotland's Patron Saint, Andrew. Tweet us your family pictures wearing Scotland's national textile @KirkhillPrimary1

Scot's Language

Each class will enjoy an online theatre performance from Macastory. As we look ahead to the festive period, Macastory will perform "Christmas Coorie Doon"

History of Scot's Language

The link below details the history of Scots from the Middle Ages to the present day.

It features a short animation which provides examples of how Scots has been used over the last 400 years.
