

Random Acts of Kindness-Christmas Countdown

Every day in December there will be a fun Elf on the Shelf picture tweeted out and also shared with classes. But our Kirkhill Elf is a little bit different. Instead of watching out for children being naughty or nice, he is watching out for things to be #Proud of. Kirkhill families are invited to join in with our Elf's 'Random Acts of Kindness-Christmas Countdown' by choosing activities from the list below. Families can join in as much or as little as they want to, the Random Acts of Kindness don't need to be done in any particular order and we hope that you will tweet photos of your family joining in, @KirkhillPS #kpsself #kpskindness . You might even get a little message from the Elf in return!

-
-
- Give at least 5 people a compliment today
  - Donate pet food to a local shelter
  - Leave a thank you card for your bin collector
  - Donate an unwanted toy to a local charity
  - Do something nice for your siblings
  - Write a thank you note for someone
  - Donate outgrown clothes to a local charity
  - Read someone a story
  - Make a donation to a local foodbank
  - Call someone you haven't seen for a while
  - Tidy your bedroom without being asked
  - Make a thank you card for the crossing patrol staff
  - Help to cook dinner for your family
  - Make a handmade gift for someone
  - Draw or colour a picture for someone
  - Put out food for the birds
  - Tidy up your toys without being asked
  - Collect spare change and donate it to a charity
  - Tell someone all the things you like about them
  - Invite someone new to play with you

If you can think of anymore ideas you can add them to the list.