Dear Parents/Carers,

I hope you and your family are keeping well.

During this period of lockdown, as our online learning continues, your child's teacher may at times as part of reading activities use a platform called Oxford Owls to share reading books with your child, rather than our usual Big Cats. The format will still be the same as teachers will introduce the story to your children through a Loom video (which will be accessed through the weekly Literacy planner). To access the ebooks, the Oxford Owls website requires a username and password. Please find these below:

I have sent step by step instructions to support logging into the ebooks in today's Friday Bundle. As an alternative to logging into the Oxford Owls website, after your child has had the introduction from their teacher, you may wish to simply mute the sound and re-read the story with your child from the Loom video.

Please note that this is only applicable when the class teacher highlights you should access the Oxford Owls website as the Big Cat stories will still be used at times too.

Thank you again for your continued support.
