Dear Parent/Carer

Anti-bullying Week 2022 – “Listen up! Respect our rights”

As part of our Health and Wellbeing curriculum and our continuing work to develop all children's social, emotional and behavioural skills we are planning some lessons and activities that will coincide with National Anti-bullying Week, which takes place at Kirkhill from Monday 21st November until Friday 25th November 2022.

This year the theme for Anti Bullying Week is Listen Up! Respect our Rights and the pupils will be taking part in activities and discussions during Health and Wellbeing time focussing on standing up for the rights of children and young people to stop bullying in its tracks.

To support you in discussing this issue with your child at home we will be sharing resources and information through our school Twitter feed and our school website. You can also find out more about some of the national initiatives in Scotland on the following website: <https://respectme.org.uk/>

Our School captains have been working hard to update our school's anti-bullying policy which they will share on our school website shortly.

On Friday 26th November we would like to encourage our families to take part in “odd socks day”. On this day we would encourage everyone to come to school wearing odd socks or interesting tights. The purpose of this is to celebrate what makes us unique, it is designed to be fun and an opportunity for everyone to express themselves and celebrate their individuality.

Thank you for your continued support!

Yours sincerely

Head Teacher
