

Hello,

The Autistic Collective recently announced the next event open to anyone who lives or works in East Renfrewshire, and we would be most grateful if you could kindly pass it onto staff and families of pupils at Kirkhill Primary School.

On Wednesday 6th September at 7.00pm, Evaleen Whelton, AUsome Training / Konfident Kidz is returning to explore "Best strategies for supporting Autistic kids and teens". As well as parents and carers, we would love to welcome you and your colleagues. The presentation is being recorded, and everyone who registers will receive a link to the recording.

To register for the event, please email hello@autistic-collective.org Further details, including a poster are below.

The Autistic Collective is taking a wee break over the summer, and we would like to take this opportunity to thank you for your support in promoting our events over the last few months. We hope you all have a wonderful, relaxing summer break.

Best wishes,

Catriona and Lesley

Hey, hey, hey lovely people! Due to popular demand....guess who's coming back?

We're thrilled to announce the wonderful Evaleen Whelton, AUsome Training / Konfident Kidz will be East Ren-bound via Zoom on 6th September. This time around, she'll be exploring "Best strategies for supporting Autistic kids and teens".

Get ahead of the game and stick the date in your diary now. To grab your FREE, fully-funded place, please register by emailing hello@autistic-collective.org

Note. Whilst the event title looks like it's purely targeted at under 18s, Evaleen will be talking about human experience, and this session will be hugely beneficial to all. Many adults report a "life-changing" and "transformative" experience for themselves after reading Evaleen's books targeted at younger people.

Open to ANYONE who lives or works in East Renfrewshire

you a recording afterwards.
(Q&A will not be recorded).

This ZOOM session will explore;

- ★ What do we know about "autism" in 2023?
- ★ And why doesn't everyone know this?
- ★ What do we know about Autistic social skills?
- ★ How do we best support Autistic kids and teens?
- ★ How can we remove social barriers for Autistic kids and teens?
- ★ Opportunity to ask questions

Want to know more about the speaker?

Evaleen has worked with kids and teens for over 20 years. In her work as a speech and drama teacher Evaleen has always been interested in building kids' esteem and supporting kids to be themselves.

Since making the discovery that she herself is Autistic in 2014, she has focused her passion and attention on supporting Autistic kids and young people to be the very best versions of themselves and to be themselves unapologetically.

Her work centres the rights and dignity of Autistics and she has a deep understanding of the issues that face young Autistics in their social world and much of the work she does is to break down these social barriers for Autistics young and old.

Evaleen is heavily involved in the Autistic Community in Ireland and on an international level. Her work is driven by her vision of the world. A world where everyone is valued and treated with respect and dignity. A world where Autistic kids are not pathologised and our ways are better understood, accepted and celebrated.

For further info and to book your fully-funded place, please email hello@autistic-collective.org

Can't make it? Don't worry, please register anyway! All registrants will receive access to the recording afterwards.

Note: The Q&A section of the session will NOT be recorded. In the recording, the presenter(s) will be the only people visible on your screen, and comments made in the chat box on the day will have been removed.
