

Maximum XP gained

Collect your prize

This is a challenge with a difference that only the brave of heart can undertake.

Each book read must link to the next—the chain must not be broken or all XP will be lost.

The Rules: each book must have a link to the next—you must identify each link and note it. The links must make sense. Links can not be based on author but they can be based on character. Links can not be based on title but they can be based on theme. If you are unsure as to whether the link will hold ask Mrs Baird. The stronger the link the more likely you will survive this perilous journey!

Cereal box book report:

You will create a new cereal brand based on the book you have just read. Be sure to cover your cereal box with plain paper before you start (I can give you some if you need it).

Here is what it will look like:

	TOP OF BOX Author and title/ manufactured by (your name) Best before : todays date
NUTRITIONAL VALUE Write down your own thoughts and feeling about the book and who you might recommend it to.	FRONT COVER Create a name for your cereal that links to the title of your book and that actually sounds like a cereal. Add a short summary c 4-5 lines. Illustrate your box so that it is eye-catching and appealing. The cover must include some relevant symbols that relate to important events that occur in your book. Include inside the box a prize. (you can make it out of paper or cardboard if you like). Make sure you mention the prize on the front of your box.	CHARACTER INGREDIENTS List the main characters and describe their personality traits. You can liken them to ingredients that you might find in a real cereal if you wish.
