MCHS SKILLS FRAMEWORK

School extracurricular activities help students develop important meta skills by providing opportunities to manage time, work collaboratively, and solve problems in real-life contexts. Through participation, students build self-management, communication, adaptability, leadership, and critical thinking skills.

Clubs also encourage resilience and self-reflection, fostering a growth mindset that supports continuous learning and personal development beyond the classroom.

ECO- COMMITTEE CLUB

MISS RUSSELL AND MS LAFFERTY

Are you passionate about the planet? Want to make a real difference in your school and beyond? Then Eco Committee is the place for you.

We're looking for people who care about sustainability, protecting the environment, and creating a greener future. At the Eco Committee, you'll get involved in exciting activities like organising and entering eco competitions, litter picks, running school-wide initiatives, and even taking part in eco-themed trips.

Together, we'll work to make our school more sustainable and raise awareness about important environmental issues. It's your chance to take action, make an impact, and be the change you want to see in the world.

New members are always welcome, let's make a difference together.

RIGHTS RESPECTING SCHOOLS GROUPS

MR SINGH

The Rights Respecting Schools group has been setup to promote an inclusive environment at MCHS where pupils learn about their rights and how to ensure all young people have their rights respected. Pupils attend meetings where their voice is heard in matters that affect them, school life and life outside of MCHS. In the past pupils have been involved in delivering assemblies to different year groups, organising food bank collections and hosting a human rights week. We are always looking for new members who are passionate about making a difference to people's lives.

LIBRARY BOOK CLUB

MISS MCEACHERN

If you love books and reading then the Library Book Group is the place for you! You will have the chance to meet new (and old) friends in the library and chat about the books you are reading and get great recommendations. You will also be able to make suggestions for new books to be bought by the librarian for the library. We also shadow the Carnegie Book Award and you will be the first to read lots of brilliant new books which have been nominated for this important book prize. You can decide on a winner and vote online. We also have great fun taking part in various book-based games, quizzes, activities and competitions with great book prizes up for grabs! The Library Book Group is open to all year groups so come along and share your love of books and reading with like-minded friends in a safe, welcoming environment.

MRS GILES AND MR
MCGEEVER

Calling all S3–S6 pupils!

Unleash your inner ghost and join the Senior Ghost Tour Drama Club. We're looking for creative minds to help devise a chilling and unforgettable promenade theatre experience. You won't just be acting; you'll be creating the entire show—from writing spooky stories and crafting eerie characters to guiding audiences on a haunted journey through the school building.

If you're passionate about drama, enjoy a good scare, and want to be part of an immersive, student-led production, this is your chance. No previous experience with promenade theatre is needed, just a willingness to explore the shadows and bring our school's ghostly tales to life.

LEGO CLUB

MISS THOMSON

The Lego Club will continue to work on their enterprise project by building and selling Lego photo frames to the school community. We will also continue to run our Famous Moment in Lego competition which we design and build together. Lego Club is a great place to use your creativity and collaboration skills in a friendly and supportive atmosphere.
