

Higher English - Online Learning

Week beginning 11th January 2021

Remember that you should try to follow your timetable as far as possible. Usually, you would have 3 double periods of English, as well as homework and self-study.

Compulsory task: Complete your persuasive folio essay

Deadline: Wednesday 13th January

Submit this to the assignment on YOUR TEACHER'S Google Classroom.

This essay should have been well under way as all classes were set a deadline to complete the essay by this date.

All teaching was done before Christmas to prepare you for the completion of this essay, however, you may find it helpful to watch the following videos to help you write an excellent first draft.

If you have finished your first draft, watch the videos to remind you of what a successful persuasive essay should include and work to upgrade yours before submitting it to your teacher.

Additional Tasks

Depending on the stage your class has reached with the persuasive folio essay, your teacher may assign you a further task on the google classroom for your class. Please check to ensure you do not miss anything.

This may include studying the poem 'Mrs Midas' if you have not yet covered it. There is a power point that includes tasks, annotations and links to videos to help you.
