

National Autistic
Society
Scotland

East Renfrewshire
Branch

Stepping Stones

4 week course for parents/carers

The Stepping Stones project was designed by our branch and been commended in the UK Parliament. It aims to support parents/carers in the early stages of learning about autism, helping them to understand their child/young person and learn about local East Renfrewshire services. This project is best suited to those who have received a diagnosis within the last 2 years or on the pathway to diagnosis.

For more information email us

eastrenfrewshire.branch@nas.org.uk

For more information email us

 eastrenfrewshire.branch@nas.org.uk

The National Autistic Society is a charity registered in England and Wales (269425) and in Scotland (SC039427).

