

nine twenty™ presents

Insp-Hire

What do you want to be when you grow up?

Do you want to see what makes a jet fighter fly?

Do you want to program and control
a robot?

Want to know how leading video games are made?

Industry 4.0 is upon us and here at Nine Twenty, it's our mission to educate and inspire the next generation of Digital Superheroes!

Come and learn more about the world of technology and science, and see what the future holds for you!

So if you are aged 4-14, we invite you, and your parent/guardian, to a very fun day out.

FREE to attend, as well as...

- Fun workshops
- Guest speakers
- Prize giveaways
- Interactive exhibitions
- Aeroplanes & robots
- And free snacks!
