Dear Parent/Carer

Adverse Weather

Many thanks for your patience and understanding during the challenging weather circumstances last week. Hopefully this will be a much more straightforward week! When I received the call at 4.30 pm last Tuesday to say that the school and ELCC were to be closed the following day, we immediately posted the information on our website and Twitter feed. This was followed by an e-mail and text and we continued to update the Twitter feed on our website on the subsequent days. Please do not hesitate to get in touch if any of these communications did not reach you or if you have any feedback on how we communicate urgent information to you.

Book Fair

The Travelling Book Fair has battled its way through the snow and will hopefully arrive at Thornliebank today. Each class will have a slot tomorrow to view the books and then the book fair will be open for business for any child with money each day from 2- 3 30pm in the blue hall, Tuesday –Friday. Parents are welcome to browse and buy from 3 pm. The book fair is a great way for the school to earn commission which can then been used to re-stock our own libraries.

Primary 2

Miss Zafar has kindly agreed to accompany our P7 pupils on their residential week to Lockerbie Manor. This means that our P7 teacher, Mrs Brown, will take over responsibility for P2 at the start of the week, with Mrs McGarvey remaining in the class at the end of the week to ensure continuity. Apologies for being unable to relay this information to you last week. If you have any concerns, please do not hesitate to contact Mrs Brown or Mrs McGarvey via the school office.

Yours sincerely
