

Hello everyone, it is Friday yet again. Mrs McKay has been out of the office working elsewhere for the latter half of this week. This Friday round up is therefore, not as it would normally be. I have

PARENT MEETINGS

Mrs McKay had asked that you complete the form indicating your preference for your parents meeting. If there are any of you still to do this, can you please ensure that it is done by Monday 15th November at 8.30am. Please click the following link PARENT MEETING

COP26

The Rights Respecting Group have asked me to remind you that they are organising a special 'Junk Art' Challenge. Thank you for all of your recyclable donations. These are all very much appreciated. We will update you with pictures of the artwork created.

POPPY SCOTLAND

On Thursday 11th November at 11am we held a minutes silence. We thank you for your support with the Poppy Scotland Appeal.

TEA TOWELS

Thank you for all of your orders of our Uplawmoor Tea Towels. We had over 125 ordered. There are still a couple of payments outstanding, can we please ensure that these are in by Monday 15th November at 8.30am.

UNICEF – WORLD CHILDREN’S DAY

On Thursday 11th November we celebrated World Children’s Day in Uplawmoor Primary and the children wore blue to show their support for UNICEF and the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child. Thank you for your support with this.

SCHOOL PHOTOS

Last week we sent home samples of your child’s/children’s school photos for you to order, if you wished to do so. We have been provided with the links to the year group photos, which Mr Blackwell will email out to you today. Details, of how to order these pictures, can be found by following the links provided.

Please do not hesitate to contact us. Remember no question or problem is too small to discuss with us.

Best Regards
