Guest Speaker

Michaela Foster Marsh

Michaela Foster Marsh is an acclaimed singer-songwriter with three albums to her credit whose work has appeared in television and film, including Dawson's Creek and The Matthew Sheppard Story. She has been invited to sing at the Monaco International Film Festival, the Cannes International Film Festival, and for Her Majesty, Queen Elizabeth. She is the founder and Executive Director of Starchild Charity, which works primarily with vulnerable children and women and which has built a School for Creative Arts in Vvumba, Uganda. In 2017, she was a finalist of Scotswoman of the Year by the Evening Times and has received a Prime Minister's award for her work in Uganda. Her first novel will be published next year.
