

Grant Information

On 18 January 2021, The Scottish Government announced an extra £750,000 to provide extra support to carers during the ongoing Coronavirus pandemic. This adds to the existing grants we are available to offer - please see details for each grant below:

Microgrants

Microgrants available for adult and young carers up to £75 for something that will make lockdown easier for the carer and/or the cared for person. Ideas include a Netflix membership, online yoga course, microwave or plants.

Apply: Please apply online by going to the COVID-19 webpage on our website and filling out the form

Hardship Fund

We can provide a grant of up to £100 for help with things like bills, food or clothing. This grant is only open to young carers or parent carers of a child under 18.
