

Invitation to our FREE online information session for parents

Q&A with Skills Development Scotland

Next steps: young people's options for education, work and training.

To be held on Tuesday 26 May

Places are free, registration is essential at

<https://bit.ly/ConnectplusSDS>

Choose from afternoon or evening session

The Skills Development Scotland and Connect teams will share advice and information about options for next steps within and from school. The teams will also share how they can help your young person make the best decisions about work, apprenticeships or other training, college or university as well as the most up to date information about accessing career services because of the impact of COVID19.

After you register, we will send you a link to join the session. If you would like to submit a question in advance, please contact training@connect.scot
