Literacy 	Provost Debate In December, we will be attending a trip for our Provost Debate where we will have to debate an issue as a class. To help prepare for this trip, you are going to take on some debating research. At home, can you come up with a hot debating topic that has a clear FOR and AGAINST argument? The best discussions will be voted for and one will be chosen as our class issue for the Provost Debate. Here are some examples below to start you off on your debating journey but please feel free to choose a completely different topic-preferably something that you are interested in. Previous debating topics: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Mobile phones should be banned in schools. • Jotters should be abolished and replaced with ICT. • Robots will replace people. • Junk food should be banned in schools. • One hour is screen time enough. • Animal testing should be illegal. • Zoos should be banned. • Books are much better than television. Record the arguments FOR and AGAINST your issue in your Literacy jotter. Discuss these argument with someone at home.
Talking and Listening 	In class we are learning about World War II. Your task is to research the life and involvement of a significant individual during World War II. This could be someone from any part of the world at that time. Some examples of significant individuals are given below but please feel free to choose someone that is not on the list that you personally find interesting. <table border="1" style="width: 100%; border-collapse: collapse; margin: 10px 0;"> <tbody> <tr> <td style="padding: 2px;">Adolf Hitler</td> <td style="padding: 2px;">Herman Goering</td> </tr> <tr> <td style="padding: 2px;">Neville Chamberlain</td> <td style="padding: 2px;">Joseph Goebbels</td> </tr> <tr> <td style="padding: 2px;">Winston Churchill</td> <td style="padding: 2px;">Henrich Himmler</td> </tr> <tr> <td style="padding: 2px;">Franklin D. Roosevelt</td> <td style="padding: 2px;">Charles de Gaulle</td> </tr> <tr> <td style="padding: 2px;">Anne Frank</td> <td style="padding: 2px;">Joseph Stalin</td> </tr> <tr> <td style="padding: 2px;">Benito Mussolini</td> <td style="padding: 2px;">King George the VI</td> </tr> <tr> <td style="padding: 2px;">Susan Travers</td> <td style="padding: 2px;">Nancy Wake</td> </tr> <tr> <td style="padding: 2px;">Hedy Lamarr</td> <td style="padding: 2px;">Hideki Tojo</td> </tr> </tbody> </table> You must include the following information during your presentation but the format and content is completely your choice. Your final presentation should be as detailed as possible. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Timeline of life ➤ Key events ➤ Their impact on World War II ➤ Justification for choosing this person ➤ You may present your project using a PowerPoint, make a video, create a piece of art, write a short book, a solo talk with props or create a poster displaying your findings. Your presentation should last around two minutes. Be prepared to present your project on Friday 1st November. Good Luck!	Adolf Hitler	Herman Goering	Neville Chamberlain	Joseph Goebbels	Winston Churchill	Henrich Himmler	Franklin D.
