

Courses	Book Week Scotland		Self Ass.	Parent Signature/ Comment
Starter 	*Make a list of as many adjectives and adverbs as you can from the book. Choose 5 and use a thesaurus to write down the synonyms. *Find 5 new interesting words from the book. Write down what each means. Then use each word in a sentence of your own. *Think of 5 questions you would like to ask one of the characters in your book. Answer these as if you were the character. *Which Character in the book are you most like? Explain your answer. Which character you like the most? Which character you like the least? Explain your answer. *What do other characters think or say about the main character? Why do they feel this way?
Main Course 	*Pretend to be one of the characters in the book. Who will you be? Write your diary for one day. *Write a poem describing a place or person in the story you're reading. *Write a newspaper report about an important event in the book including a headline, interviews with people involved and pictures. *Write a letter to one of the characters in the story. *Write an interview between you and the main character of the book. Be sure you write detailed responses for your characters. *Construct a timeline to show all the main events in the story in order they happen. *Write a summary of the story in 50 words.
Dessert 	*Imagine you are one of the characters. Draw a picture diary recording the key events that happened in the story. Add a comment about how you felt. *Draw a picture of one of the settings used in the story. Label everything in your picture. *Draw a picture of one of the characters in the book. Find and copy 3 things the writer says about this character. *Draw a picture of an important part in the story. Explain why you think this part is important. *Draw a poster advertising this book. Make sure you write on the poster why people should read it.			