

Literacy Grid

Write a biography about an inspirational person. You should include information about the following: childhood, family life, career, achievements and why they are inspirational to you.	Draw an annotated picture of a character from a book you have recently read. Label information about things like their appearance, personality, strengths, weaknesses, events that happen to them etc.	Based upon a book that you have recently read, make a list of the ways in which your life relates to particular events or characters.	Find the countries that each of these words originate from: chauffeur, soprano, patio, toboggan, boutique, glitch, macho, karaoke, paparazzi. Write a sentence for each word. Find 5 other words which originate in other countries.
Create a brochure to promote a city of your choice. You should include: exciting events, tourist attractions, culture, local cuisine. It must make people want to visit that city.	Using a book you have recently read choose 3 important events from the text and explain how you would have handled them differently to the characters in the story.	Write a definition for the these words and use them in a poem: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Onomatopoeia</li> <li>• Simile</li> <li>• Personification</li> <li>• Hyperbole</li> </ul>	Read 2 chapters of a book with someone at home. Create a list of challenging questions for them to answer. Make sure to use a variety of literal, inferential and evaluative questions.
Find definitions for the following types of punctuation and use them in a short story: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Brackets</li> <li>• Inverted commas</li> <li>• Parenthesis</li> <li>• Ellipses</li> </ul>	Create a leaflet to bring awareness to an important global issue e.g. global warming, climate change, protecting our oceans etc.	Read a recent newspaper article and write a 100 word summary of the important information included. Remember it needs to be in your own words.	Write a diary entry for a person from history or a fictional character who experienced an historic event. You should include: dates/times, a series of events, conflicts and solutions, emotive language.
Redraft a piece of writing created in another task and up-level using a wider range of openers, more ambitious vocabulary and a variety of punctuation.	Make a list of 10 commonly misspelled words and use them in sentences. Challenge someone at home to spell them.	Using the title of a book or movie you have never seen before, write down your predictions for what might happen throughout. Now check to see if you were correct.	Create a script for a radio broadcast about a particular topic that you are interested in.