

Read and Understand

(Chapters – Weird Kids, Halloween Party, Warning: This Kid is Rated R, Egyptian Tomb)

1. Why does Summer sit with August at lunch?
2. Summer isn't in the 'popular group'; why is she invited to Savannah's party?
3. One of the themes of this section is 'secrets and lies'. Can you explain this?
4. In this section, we see in detail what a good relationship Summer has with August. Choose 3 pieces of evidence to show this.
5. Does Summer break her pinky promise?

Infer What's Not There

In the chapter 'Fortune Favours the Bold', the class are asked to write about a time in their lives when they did something brave and because of it, something great happened. Jack wonders what August wrote about, as he must have did lots of brave things.

Write down 3 things that you think August could have written for this task from what you have read of the novel so far. Try to use evidence from the book to support your statements.

Write

Re-read the chapter 'The Call'. In this part of the story, Mr Tushman calls Jack's mum to ask if he will give August a tour of the school.

From reading Jack's mums response to the phone call, write the other side of the conversation from Mr Tushman's point of view. Think about the questions he would ask, the language or tone of voice he would use and his character traits.

Reflect and Respond

(Chapters – Carvel, Why I Changed My Mind, Four Things)

1. What was Jack's first reaction seeing August?
2. Mom says that Jack has a problem with everyone these days. Give three examples.
3. Do you think Jamie was being serious or silly when he was talking about August? Show evidence from the text.
4. Jack says that August is cool, funny, nice and smart. Choose 2 of these qualities and find examples in the book where August shows this.

Characters

Inspirational or Ordinary?

In the novel, August can be recognised as both inspirational and ordinary. Make a poster using evidence from the book to show your thoughts. Consider these questions:

- How does his life and the way he tackles his difficulties inspire you?
- Is August an admirable person? Why?
- How is he just like any other 11 year old?

Compare your life to August's. What are the differences and similarities?
