Taking a Closer Look . . .

Verbs

A verb is a doing word. It refers to an action, such as eat, drink, walk, sit, jump.

To find the verb in a sentence, ask yourself: what did the person who is the subject of the sentence do?

For example, look at this sentence from the passage:

They all watched while Ben opened their presents.

What did they do?

What did Ben do?

'Watched' and 'opened' are the verbs.

Four things to remember about verbs

1 A verb is a 'doing' word.

For practice

- a) Write out the verb (doing word) from each of the following sentences:
- 1 Ben expected a real dog.
 - 2 Ben pushed aside letter, packing-paper, string and picture.
 - 3 Mr Blewitt glanced at the present.
 - 4 Uncle Willy brought the picture home from his last voyage.
 - 5 Ben said nothing.
- b) From the list below, choose a suitable verb to fill each gap.
- 1 The shop _____ all the CDs in the charts.
 - 2 Over the holidays I _____ one of the 'Harry Potter' books.
 - 3 The postman _____ the birthday cards through the letter box.
 - 4 Tracy _____ the most fashionable pair of jeans in the sale.
 - 5 Kathleen _____ the shelving unit by herself.
- read picked assembled pushed sold

2 Words like 'be' and 'have' are also verbs.

To be:	I am	To have:	I/you/we/they have
	you are		he/she has
	he/she is		we are
	we are		you (plural) are
	you (plural) are		they are
