	In December, we will be attending a trip for ou	r Provost Debate where we will have to
1 222	debate an issue as a class. To help prepare for this trip, you are going to take on some debating research. At home, can you come up with a hot debating topic that has a clear FOR and AGAINST argument? The best discussions will be voted for and one will be chosen as our class issue for the Provost Debate.
	Here are some examples below to start you off on your debating journey but please feel free to choose a completely different topic-preferably something that you are interested free to choose a completely different topic-preferably something that you are interested in.
	Previous debating topics:
	Mobile phones should be banned in schools.
	<ul> <li>Jotters should be abolished and replaced with ICT.</li> </ul>
	Robots will replace people.
	<ul> <li>Junk food should be banned in schools.</li> </ul>
	<ul> <li>One hour is screen time enough.</li> </ul>
	Animal testing should be illegal.
	<ul> <li>Zoos should be banned.</li> </ul>
	Books are much better than television.  Record the arguments FOR and AGAINST your issue in your Literacy jotter. Discuss these
