Literacy 	Talking and Listening            World of Work Week is taking place from the 23rd-27th of March and there will be a focus in class on talking about future jobs and careers. Over the next week I would like you to prepare a persuasive solo talk on a job or career which particularly interests you. Find out more information about the job that you have chosen (you may wish to speak to adults or use online sources). You will present this to the class during the week of the 23rd so please use this week to prepare. Top Tips: What makes a good solo talk? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Aim to talk on the subject for 3-4 minutes.</li> <li>• Maintain good eye contact throughout.</li> <li>• Engage the audience- interact well (make use of props or humor).</li> <li>• Be enthusiastic about the topic and use relevant information.</li> <li>• Vary language and tone of voice.</li> <li>• Know your material and be prepared to answer any questions.</li> </ul> Make an effort not to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Read out a talk that you have written or information from a PowerPoint.</li> <li>• Memorize your talk and recite it.</li> </ul> You may use small prompt cards to help you to remember key points or information. Good luck and I can't wait to hear about the different jobs and career paths that inspire you!
