Film Critic

There are very few Disney films where the main character has both parents in the film and both parents survive the film. I would like you to research and find out:

- Which films does this apply to?
- Are there any exceptions?
- Does this only apply to Disney films or does it apply to other children's films too?

Pick some films that you have found to fit this criteria and perhaps some that don't and try to sum up the story in 20 words.
Please write in readable sentences! Use your words carefully and choose wisely to ensure you are able to communicate the main idea. An examples has been done for you.

Film	Story in 20 words
Space Wars	Young man's family killed. He joins battle against evil, learns new skills before his tutor dies then destroys battle station.
