

Curricular Area	Tasks
 Numeracy and Mathematics	Addition Complete Corbett Maths Addition questions. Mild - questions containing tens and units only. Hot - questions containing numbers in the hundreds. Extra Hot - questions containing numbers in the thousands.
 Literacy and English	Writing Read the story starter - can you continue the story 'The girl and the bubbles' in as much detail as you can? Mild - 1 Paragraph, Hot - 2 paragraphs, Extra Hot - 3 paragraphs. Question Time - these are here to help you continue the story and give you some ideas. Sentence Challenge and Sick Sentences - to help make your sentences better in your story by up levelling and expanding your ideas. Picture Perfect - helps your imagination.
 Other Curricular Areas	Social Studies All about China - lesson 1 At this time of year in Primary 5, we usually learn some key facts about China. Read through the slides and complete as many tasks as you wish.

Health and Wellbeing

Log in live at 9am for Joe Wicks the body coach or at a time of your choosing. Other great websites are Super Movers and Change 4 Life.

<https://www.youtube.com/thebodycoach1>

www.bbc.co.uk/supermovers

www.nhs.uk/change4life/activities/indoor-activities

Spelling Revision

Rule: ary

Words: anniversary dictionary preliminary uncustomary vocabulary ordinary solitary burglary glossary culinary salary diary sugary binary rotary

Skills Development

The smile challenge ☺

Every day, we want to challenge you to make someone smile. It might be the same person every day or it might be someone different.