Literacy and English 	Writing Yesterday you researched about different Clyde bridges. Imagine the government have announced that they will be closing and demolishing some of the Clyde bridges as it is costing them too much money to maintain all the different bridges along the Clyde. You should write a letter to the Government bridges minister defending one of the bridges you researched yesterday. Your letter should include details about when the bridge was constructed, what purpose it has and why it is an important bridge over the river Clyde. You should try to think about why this bridge should be saved. Your letter should use persuasive language to try to make sure this bridge stays opened! How many different paragraphs and arguments can you make to keep your bridge opened? Mild - 4 Paragraphs            Hot - 5 Paragraphs            Extra Hot - 6 paragraphs
