

Their, There or They're?

their shows that something belongs to them:

They are feeding their rabbit.

there shows place over there, there it is or it can be used like this:

there are six cakes
there is nothing left they're is short for they are:

I don't know why they're laughing

Choose the Correct Word: Their, There or They're?

1. Their new car is red.
2. I don't want to go up there . It's too high!
3. I think they're going to be late if they don't hurry.
4. There are new kittens at my granny's house.
5. Look at the cakes! They're all squashed!
6. They went out with their dad.
7. Have you seen my green pen? Oh look - there it is!
8. I really like my cousins. They're coming for a sleepover.
9. They're over there painting a rainbow on their window.
10. There are five dogs in their garden and they're absolutely massive!

Challenge: Can you make up some sentences of your own using their, there, or they're?