

16.01.20 Sentence Expansion

I saw the tracks.

What? I saw the bear tracks.

When? At night, I followed the bear tracks.

Where? At night, I followed the bear tracks through the sparkling, white snow.

I saw the tracks.

What? I saw the tiger tracks.

When? In the afternoon, I saw the tiger tracks.

Where? In the afternoon, I saw the tiger tracks in the hot, steamy jungle.

I followed the tracks and they led me to the tiger's family.

I followed the tracks but I couldn't find the tiger.

I followed the tracks because I felt curious about who made them.

I watched the snowflakes fall.

What? I watched the silvery, glistening snowflakes fall.

When? In the evening, I watched the silvery, glistening snowflakes fall.

Where? In the evening, I watched the silvery, glistening snowflakes fall from the cool, night sky.

I watched the snowflakes fall.

What? I watched the _____ snowflakes fall.

When? _____, I watched the _____ snowflakes fall.

Where? _____, I watched the _____ snowflakes fall _____.

I watched the snowflakes fall and _____.

I watched the snowflakes fall but _____.

I watched the snowflakes fall because _____.