Research Project - Sportsperson

Look over you fact file and check that you have included in key information. Try to add in anything else and draw an illustration of your sportsperson, making sure you take their appearance in to account (we all know that Andy Murray does not have red hair, unless he decided to dye it in lockdown). You can use the fact file template if you wish to or can come up with your own ©

Click the green tick to submit your work and share your amazing fact files with us.

Think Outside the Box

Complete the picture that has been set up as an activity on Seesaw. Try to be really creative, we are looking forward to seeing what great pictures you come up with.
