Anti-Bullying and Anti-Racism Policy

Statement of Intent

At Netherlee Primary School, we are committed to providing a caring, friendly, and safe environment for all of our pupils, so they can learn in a relaxed and secure atmosphere. This policy aims to set out the school's procedures with regard to bullying and racist behaviour.

The incorporation into Scots law of the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child (UNCRC) will hopefully ensure that all children and young people are able to enjoy their rights at all times. This includes Article 2 (non-discrimination) and 29 (goals of education):

Article 29: Education must develop every child's personality, talents and abilities to the full. It must encourage the child's respect for human rights, as well as respect for their parents, their own and other cultures, and the environment.

Article 2 (non-discrimination): The Convention applies to every child without discrimination, whatever their ethnicity, sex, religion, language, abilities or any other status, whatever they think or say, whatever their family background.

Definition of Bullying Behaviour

Falling in and out of friendships is a normal part of growing up; however, this is distinct from bullying behaviour, which is never acceptable. Bullying can be expressed through physical, emotional, verbal or intimidatory behaviour or in the form of marginalisation. People can be bullied on the grounds of age, race, gender, sexual orientation, disability, socio-economic status, nationality, religion or other real or perceived difference.

Bullying behaviour can include:

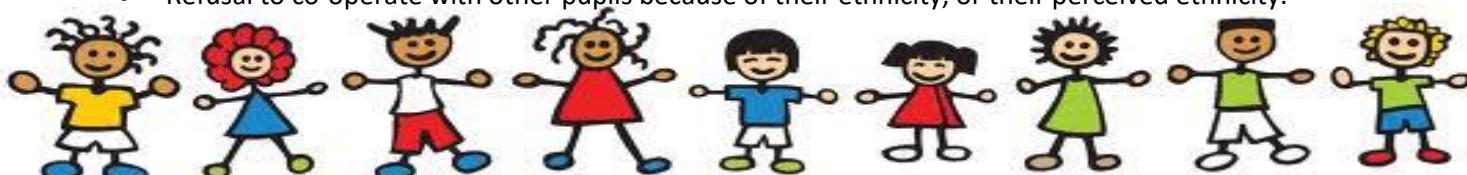

- Being called names, teased, put down or threatened
- Being hit, tripped or kicked
- Having belongings stolen or damaged
- Being ignored, left out or having rumours spread about you
- Receiving abusive text messages or e-mails
- Being forced to do things against your will
- Being targeted for who you are or who you are perceived to be.

Definition of Racism

Racism is a complex issue and there are many definitions. In simple terms, racism is when someone typically in a racialised minority is discriminated against because of the colour of their skin, nationality, ethnicity (which includes culture, religion and/or language) or national origin/heritage.

Racist behaviour can include:

- Isolating or marginalising someone because of the colour of their skin, nationality or ethnicity*. (*Ethnicity includes culture, religion and language.)
- Verbal or non-verbal abuse, e.g. threats, derogatory name-calling, gestures, racist jokes
- Taking or damaging property, for example with racist graffiti
- Physical assault and harassment, e.g. hitting, tripping, pushing, kicking
- Visual - racist text or images such as posters, notices or graffiti
- Cyber - using social media and messaging platforms to promote or incite racism
- Incitement of others to behave in a racist manner
- Provocative behaviour such as wearing racist symbols
- Refusal to co-operate with other pupils because of their ethnicity, or their perceived ethnicity.
