learn grow work?

Full time, paid position
starting July 2022

Emperor, Edinburgh

We're looking to find our next Account Executive, someone full of ideas and ready to explore a career in marketing. We don't need to know where you went to school or what grades you got, just what you can bring to the table.

A bit about us - we're an employee owned creative agency with a strong culture of care and support, paired with amazing quality of work. We also take care of our employees - an extra day off on your birthday and paid time off for charity work to start.

We'll be interviewing in June, and particularly encourage applications from people about to leave school. If you're interested, email jobsedin@emperor.works by 30th April telling us why you'd be a perfect fit for the role (300 words max, no novels please!).
